VICTORIA, B. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1915

NO. 58

R. L. DRURY LAID TO HIS LAST REST

Hundreds Pay Tribute to Fellow-Citizen of Sterling Worth.

DEATH CAME AFTER LENGTHY ILLNESS

Long Active in Business, Political and Religious Life of Victoria

The public life of Victoria is the poorer to-day by the loss of Richard Low Drury, whose body was this morning laid to rest in Ross Bay cemetery with every demonstration of regret and the last tributes of hundreds of friends and business and political associates.

For a year past Mr. Drury had been in failing health, having developed diabetes. In search of health he had been away off and on for a considerable part of the present year, but in the intervals when he was at home he was actively engaged in business. As late as Friday he was at his office and transacted a deal of work, but that evening when he went to his home, "Kenilworth," Fowl Bay road, he had to go to bed. He soon fell into a comatose condition and remained so until death came to his release at half-past ten o'clock on Saturday night.

There was a short service at the home this forenoon, at 10.30, Rev. C. T. Scott, D. D., pastor of Metropolitan Methodist church, officiating. It was of a very simple character, in conformity with the known desires of the deceased. Dr. Scott paid a touching tribute to Mr. Drury as "a worthy man with an ideal and a vision."

There was a representative gathering of citizens, men from every walk in life coming to pay this last mark of honor to one who was greatly honored and respected in life. The floral tributes, too, were many and were very beautiful, among them being the following:

"Gates ajar," from employees of the Victoria Times; "broken wheel," from personal office staff; members of the Victoria British Columbia Board of Trade; members of the Pacific club; board of directors of the Royal Jubilee Hospital; directors of the Young Men's Christian association; official board of the Metropolitan Methodist church; Dominion Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F.; Victoria Liberal association; Women's Guild of St. Matthias church; Young Men's Bible class of the Metropolitan Methodist church; Col. E. G. Prior; R. F. Green, M. P., and Mrs. Green; H. C. Brewster; Mr. and Mrs. David Spencer; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Davey; Dr. and Mrs. Clement; Messrs. William and Walter Loney; Mrs. G. A. McCulloch; A. B. Fraser; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Elliott; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. T. Cusack; Mrs. M. J. Cusack; Miss A. Cusack; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Green; Miss Nora Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dowler; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Woodward; Miss Jennie Abernethy; Lee Yuen; Mr. and Mrs. John Hart; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Richardson; Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Kingham; Mrs. Jas. Stewart; Mrs. Winifred Sands; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Grant; Mr. and Miss J. A. Mara; Mr. and Mrs. R. Fowler; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Munn; Miss Templeman; Miss McAdam; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McIntosh.

AIRMEN DROPPED 400
BOMBS ON SAARBRUCKEN

Paris, Sept. 7.—Last night saw a continuation of the violent artillery exchanges along the French line, according to the official communication given out by the war office this afternoon.

Fighting took place around Souchez and near Neuville, and it was particularly severe in the region of Roye, on the plateau of Quennevillers and near Novour. There also was very spirited artillery fighting in the Champagne district and in the Vosges.

German aeroplanes have made two attacks on Gerardmere. These resulted in the killing of two persons.

Many Killed.

Basel, Sept. 7.—The aerial bombardment of Saarbrücken, recorded in last night's official statement from the French war office, probably was the most notable operation of its kind during the war. Forty French and British war aeroplanes circled low over the town and accurately threw bombs on the small arms factory, the barracks, the railway station, the engine sheds and other military buildings. Several hundred yards of railroad trackage was destroyed and many recruits in the barracks were killed or wounded.

Saarbrücken is not provided with anti-aircraft high-angle fire and an armored train that had been summoned from Metz, bringing aerial guns on trucks, arrived too late to interfere with the operations of the aviators.

All forty aeroplanes, after discharging about 400 projectiles, returned safely to Nancy.

NO CONSCRIPTION, DECLARE WORKMEN

Resolution Was Passed at Bristol To-day; Recruiting in Canada

Bristol, Eng., Sept. 7.—A resolution against conscription was adopted unanimously with great cheering at today's session of the Trades Union congress.

The congress also declared in favor of nationalization of the railroads, taking the position that the experience of the government in managing the roads during the war was sufficiently encouraging to justify this step.

Ottawa, Sept. 7.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, who returned to the capital this morning, spoke enthusiastically of recruiting throughout the Dominion. He asserted that the militia department would experience no difficulty in securing men as fast as they can be armed and equipped, no matter how long the war lasts.

Referring more particularly to recruiting in the Toronto district, he said that on the eve of his departure for the old country he had asked Col. Loggie, in charge of the Toronto district, to raise four battalions. As a matter of fact, Col. Loggie had raised nine battalions. This was illustrative of conditions in all parts of the Dominion.

LANSING AND M'ADOO TALKED WITH WILSON

Washington, Sept. 7.—Secretary Lansing and Secretary McAdoo conferred this afternoon with President Wilson over the Hesperian and Dumba cases. Secretary Lansing wanted to discuss the Dumba incident with the president before Ambassador Dumba reached Washington.

RAINS AND CLODBURSTS.

Kansas City, Sept. 7.—The worst flood in the history of Southeastern Kansas was sweeping that section of the state to-day as a result of heavy rains and a series of cloudbursts.

Germans Make False Claim That She Sank Small Old British Cruiser

BRITISH AND FRENCH
STEAMSHIPS SUNK

Berlin, Sept. 7.—The German submarine U-27 was destroyed after sinking a small British cruiser, according to announcement issued by the admiralty here to-day. No details are given, nor is the loss of life, if any, announced. The statement follows:

"According to a report of one of our submarines, it met the U-27 on the high seas after the latter, about August 10, had sunk a small British cruiser of an old type west of the Hebrides Islands (off the coast of Scotland). The U-27 has not returned since, and must be regarded as 'lost.'"

The U-27 belonged to the class numbered from U-25 to U-30. She was armed with two 14-pounder disappearing guns, two 1-pounder high-angle guns and four torpedo tubes, two forward and two aft.

STEAMSHIP SUNK.

London, Sept. 7.—The Harrison liner Dictator, of 4,115 tons gross, has been torpedoed by a German submarine, according to advice received by Lloyd's to-day. The crew landed safely.

The Dictator was owned by a British corporation. The vessel plied between Liverpool and South American ports, but in April, it is believed, was taken over by the British government.

It is understood that the Dictator was attacked and sunk in what the Germans call the "war zone" about the British Isles.

CHIEF OF POLICE KILLED.

Athens, Sept. 7.—The chief of police of Petrograd has been killed by an assassin, according to a dispatch received here to-day from the Russian capital.

CYMRIC AT LIVERPOOL.

Liverpool, Sept. 7.—The liner Cymric arrived here to-day from New York with 191 passengers.

LIBERAL MASS MEETING.

A mass meeting of Liberals of Victoria will be held in the rooms, Jeune Block, Cormorant street, to-morrow evening.

Business of much importance will be taken up and a large attendance is desired.

WILSON DECLINES.

Washington, Sept. 7.—President Wilson has declined to allow Democrats in New Jersey, his home state, to endorse him for another term, because he feels it might seem as though he were taking advantage of the international situation to gain some personal advantage.

MESSAGE SENT BY RUSSIAN EMPEROR

President Poincare Replied; Enemy's Attempt in Russia is Collapsing

VON HINDENBURG IS MEETING DIFFICULTIES

As the Rainy Season Comes on His Troubles Will Increase

Paris, Sept. 7.—News that Czar Nicholas had taken over command of the Russian armies was received here by President Poincare in a dispatch direct from the czar. It said:

"In placing myself at the head of my valiant army, I take particular pleasure in addressing you M. President, with most sincere wishes for the grandeur of France and victory for her glorious armies."

President Poincare replied to Emperor Nicholas as follows:

"I know that in taking command your majesty intends to pursue the enemy energetically and until final victory in a war which has been forced upon the allied nations."

Attempt is Collapsing.

Petrograd, Sept. 7.—The Teutonic invasion is collapsing, according to a semi-official announcement here to-day.

The Germans have been checked at virtually every point and the Russians, now fighting under favorable conditions, soon may assume the offensive.

Experts are watching the Riga campaign closely.

An official statement issued later in the day said that the Russians were holding their own in the face of a terrific artillery fire and that the German forces along the Niemen river had been checked.

"South of the Niemen," said the statement, "the Germans have sustained heavy losses."

"Russian artillery is hampering the efforts of the Germans at road-building."

"Cossacks are raiding German communications with marked success."

Encountering Difficulties.

London, Sept. 7.—The immediate objective of the Austro-German campaign in Russia becomes clearer with the growing indication that the invaders need the Baltic port of Riga, not only as a base for present operations in the direction of Petrograd, but as winter quarters in case the attempt to reach the Russian capital should be postponed until next spring.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg is experiencing great difficulty in bridging the portions of the Dvina held by the Germans. The current of the river is too swift for the construction of pontoons under the Russian artillery fire.

As the rainy season comes on it will be more difficult for the invaders to bring up supplies, and consequently the seizure of Riga as a base becomes more vital to the success of von Hindenburg's plans.

The urgent necessity of capturing Riga is indicated in an army order which a Paris newspaper credits to General von Buelow. The general exhorts his troops to one more great effort to capture the port, so that it may be made their winter headquarters preparatory to marching on Petrograd next spring.

An Attempt on Kiev

Along the other sectors of the eastern front the impetus of the Austro-German rush has been checked, considerably. Vienna admits that fierce counter-attacks by the Russians have brought the advance along the Galician border almost to a standstill. The right wing of the Austro-German forces is said to be contemplating an attack on Kiev, with Field Marshal von Mackensen in command.

No notions of exceptional importance occurred on any of the minor fronts. The great artillery bombardment by the French continues along the western line.

Fruitless to Talk of Terms of Peace

London, Sept. 7.—Earl Grey, former governor-general of Canada, wired the London bureau of the International News Service to-day as follows:

"The British empire is fighting the battle of humanity, and it true to itself will continue fighting until the great offender is punished sufficiently for the wanton violation of international agreements on the enforcement of which the highest hopes of all neutral nations and civilization depend."

"In view of the German pretensions, the present peace talk is all futile."

VALUE OF SHIPMENT OVER $80,000,000

Cruiser Brought Securities and $66,100,000 in Gold to Halifax

SENT FROM THERE BY RAIL TO NEW YORK

Bangor, Maine, Sept. 7.—The third consignment of gold and securities sent to this country from Britain, which reached Halifax on the cruiser Argyl yesterday, was brought into the United States during the night.

Portland, Maine, Sept. 7.—The value of the gold and securities which arrived at Halifax yesterday on the British cruiser Argyl and which passed through Maine early to-day on the way to New York to strengthen British credit, exceeds $80,000,000.

The gold consists of 11,650,000 British sovereigns, equivalent to about $58,250,000, and $7,850,000 in United States coin. The value of the bonds is $14,000,000. This is $20,000,000 in excess of the value of the two previous consignments of gold and collateral securities.

NO DOUBT HESPERIAN STRUCK BY TORPEDO

Pieces of Steel Found Establish Fact; No Room for Argument

Washington, Sept. 7.—American Consul Frost, at Queenstown, cabled to-day that the Hesperian was torpedoed.

Consul Frost's cablegram said:

"From the steel fragments saved from the vessel it has been indubitably established that the Hesperian was torpedoed."

Accompanying Consul Frost's report were the affidavits of the Hesperian's officers, stating that the vessel was steaming through a calm sea without convoy and was struck, with no warning, eight feet below the surface on the starboard bow.

The six-inch gun, admittedly carried by the Hesperian, was mounted on the stern, painted an inconspicuous gray and unnoticeable at any considerable distance.

The affidavits stated that it was impossible to discern the wake of the torpedo, but that the odor of the explosive was strong.

WAS STEAMING WITH BOATS SWUNG OUT

Hesperian Had Been Prepared by Her Captain for an Attack

VESSEL FOLLOWED
A ZIG-ZAG COURSE

Survivors State They Were Aware Submarine Had Been Sighted

Montreal, Sept. 7.—Andrew A. Allan, of the Allan line, received a cable from the company's Liverpool agent stating that 17 persons, 13 passengers and 4 of the crew, lost their lives when the Hesperian was torpedoed Saturday off Fastnet.

At the time of the attack, the message adds, the lifeboats were swung out and lowered to the level of the promenade deck, ready for launching.

Queenstown, Sept. 7.—Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, has obtained a joint statement from officers of the Hesperian. It does not throw any new light, however, on the questions whether the ship was warned and whether a submarine was sighted.

Survivors interviewed here assert that they learned early on the day of the attack that a submarine had been sighted and say that the Hesperian kept a zigzag course thereafter.

London, Sept. 7.—Captain Main's report on the sinking of the Hesperian reached the British admiralty to-day. It was not given out for publication, but American Ambassador Page will be given a copy if he makes a request for one.

Dispatches stating that the Hesperian was torpedoed have been passed by the censors, indicating that it is the view held by British authorities.

Admiral Beatty announced to-day that nine more passengers and members of the crew had been accounted for. The missing now include 13 passengers and 4 sailors.

Page and Frost Report

Washington, Sept. 7.—Long and detailed reports from American Ambassador Page, at London, and American Consul Frost, at Queenstown, on the sinking of the Allan liner Hesperian were received to-day by Secretary of State Lansing.

"All I care to give out at this time," said Secretary Lansing, "is that it is not entirely certain yet that the Hesperian was torpedoed."

The report from Ambassador Page said in part:

"Stewards Dallas and McMillan were the only Americans on the Hesperian and they were below when the liner was struck by the torpedo."

"Admiralty officials state the Hesperian was an ordinary passenger liner, that she never had been in the government service and that no troops were aboard."

One dispatch from Consul Frost referred to the Hesperian as having sunk where she was torpedoed.

The official disposition is to give full opportunity for the receipt of official reports from both British and German sources.

Some wounded Canadians were returning to their homes traveling as passengers on individual tickets.

State department officials refused to comment on the use of the word "torpedo" by Ambassador Page. They think it may have been used as a matter of course and that, otherwise, he would have reported specifically on that angle of the incident.

Wilson's Intentions.

Washington, Sept. 7.—President Wilson will take no action relative to the sinking of the Hesperian for some time to come, at least, high officials here declared to-day. The administration sees no present reason to question Germany's good faith or to believe that she has violated her promise to refrain from attacking liners without first warning them.

State department officials believe that the United States can have no ground for action if it is established that no one aboard the Hesperian saw any submarine or torpedo, and that therefore there is nobody in a position to prove that the vessel was not sunk by a floating mine.

Washington, Sept. 7.—There is a strong possibility that the United

Dumba Went to Washington To-day to Attempt to Explain

New York, Sept. 7.—Dr. Constantin Dumba, Austro-Hungarian ambassador left for Washington to-day. He declined to make any statement regarding his reported efforts to tie up munitions plants at Bethlehem, Pa., Pittsburgh and other places, saying he was going to Washington to lay his side of the case before Secretary Lansing.

London, Sept. 7.—Here is the exact text in English of the letter written by Dr. Dumba, Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States, to Count Burian, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, which was seized by British authorities among the effects of James F. J. Archibald, an American correspondent, who was acting as messenger, and which has made such a sensation in the United States:

New York, August 20, 1915.

My Lord:—Yesterday evening Consul-general von Nuber received the enclosed aide memoir from the chief editor of the locally-known paper, Szabadsag, after a previous conference with him and in pursuance of his proposals to arrange for strikes in the Bethlehem, Schawb-steel and munitions war factory and also in the middle west.

Dr. Archibald, who is well known to your lordship, leaves to-day at 12 o'clock on the Rotterdam for Berlin and Vienna. I take this safe opportunity to warmly recommend the proposal to your lordship's favorable consideration. Their Plans.

It is my impression that we can disorganize and hold up for months, if not entirely prevent, the manufacture of munitions in Bethlehem and the middle west, which in the opinion of the German military attaché is of great importance and amply outweighs the expenditure of money involved.

But even if strikes do not come off, it is probable that we should exert under the pressure of the crisis more favorable conditions of labor for our poor down-trodden countrymen.

In Bethlehem those white slaves are now working for 12 hours a day and seven days a week. All weak persons succumb and become consumptive.

As far as German workmen are found among the skilled hands, a means of leaving will be provided for them. Besides this, a private German registry office has been established which provides employment for persons who have voluntarily given up their places, and is already working well. They will also join and the widest support is assured.

I beg your excellency to be so good as to inform him with reference to this letter by wireless telegraphy, replying whether you agree. (Sgd.) "Dumba."

ARE PLANNING TO OUST ENVER PASHA

Turks Tired of His Actions and the War; Conditions in Constantinople

Amsterdam, Sept. 7.—The anti-war movement in Turkey has reached vast proportions, according to dispatches received here to-day by the Van Dias News Agency, and plans are being made to overthrow Enver Pasha and seize Constantinople.

Mitlyene, Sept. 7.—Constantinople advices state that the speedy arrival of German forces is now the only hope the Young Turks have of relieving the desperate plight of the city. Owing to the lack of coal and flour, nearly all the mills are idle, and bread is often unobtainable. Free fights are of daily occurrence around the few bakeries still able to work.

A Turkish Statement.

Constantinople, Sept. 7.—The following official statement was issued to-day at the Turkish war office:

"The enemy unsuccessfully bombarded with land and ship batteries our positions at Anafarta and Seddul Bahr. Our artillery caused fires in enemy trenches and artillery positions at Anafarta."

ITALIANS DESTROYED AUSTRIAN TRENCHES

Detachments Put to Flight in Plezzo Basin; Arms and Ammunition Taken

Rome, Sept. 7.—The following official communication was issued yesterday: "Frequent reconnaissances have resulted in encounters with enemy detachments, which were obliged to retire. Similar actions, but of greater importance, occurred on September 4 in the Adige Valley, near Marco, and in the San Pellegrino valley, along the Avisio, at a place west of Costabellia, where we destroyed some entrenchments of the enemy.

"In the Plezzo basin our troops attacked and put to flight enemy detachments in ambush on the slope of the Monte Roben, and, penetrating their refuge, captured arms and ammunition.

"In the Cortina valley one of our detachments drove the enemy from a wood where he had been embarrassing our line by his fire, and we later occupied the wood.

"Enemy aeroplanes have been attempting numerous raids on our territory, but everywhere they have been obliged to retire rapidly."

Vienna, Sept. 7.—The following official statement was issued last night: "While yesterday along the front in the coastal district and in Carinthia the Italians generally remained inactive, they have developed, after a long interval, artillery activity in the district of the Kreuzberg ridge, and attempted to approach our sections at several places, but without success."

TURKISH DESTROYER SUNK BY SUBMARINE

Athens, Sept. 7.—The Turkish torpedo boat destroyer Yavuz Hissar has been sunk in the Sea of Marmora by a submarine of the allied fleets.

The torpedo boat destroyer Yavuz Hissar was built in 1907. She was 194 feet long and was of 284 tons displacement. The vessel had a speed of 28 knots.

HOLDING BETWEEN NIEMEN AND PRIPET

Russians Stopped Attempts of the Enemy to Assume Offensive

Petrograd, Sept. 7.—The following statement was made public last evening: "On the front from Riga to Dvinsk there is no essential change. Between the Sventy and the Wilica rivers and between the Wilica and the Niemen, conditions are unchanged.

"In the middle Niemen region, near the villages of Meretch and Hesk, the Germans, in the course of the night of the 4th and on the following day, attempted to develop their offensive. The fighting here continues.

"On the Niemen, toward the south, as far as the Pripet river, our armies occupy their former positions. The enemy has made very strong attempts at an offensive since the morning of the 5th in the region of Volkosk, along the railway from Sedletz to Hassels, in the region of Khomsk and along the railway leading to Pinsk, in the Drohobich region. All these attempts have been stopped by our troops.

"On the remainder of this front only rearward fighting is reported.

"South of Polesia the enemy continues to concentrate his main efforts on the roads from the region of Lutsk toward Dubno and Rovno, where the general situation remains unchanged. During our attack near the village of Vorsine we took as prisoners eight officers and 300 men.

"On the Niemen attempts to assume the offensive sometimes by us and sometimes by the enemy, have been fruitless. The enemy's attempts had no appreciable results. In this region we captured four machine guns and 400 soldiers."

Vienna, Sept. 7.—The following official statement was issued yesterday: "On the Bessarabian frontier, and east of the Siret river yesterday the Russians repeated their heavy attacks, which were repulsed everywhere with heavy losses to them.

"On the south front and on our line east of Brody and west of Dubno, the intensity of the conflict has slackened somewhat when compared with the heavy fighting of the last few days.

"Our troops, advancing east of Lutsk under the most difficult conditions, crossed the marshy district of Putylowka, north of Olyka.

"On the upper Jasiola river the Austro-Hungarian forces have ejected the enemy from his last fortifications."

"It is all very well for the Kaiser to protest that 'no desire of conquest has pushed Germany into the war.' What is the Kaiser's policy? Military and political guarantees, economical advantages, the freedom of the sea. What sense do these words make if they are not the insolent revindication of Germanic expansion, affirmed for the hundredth time by the Weltpolitics? 'Our future,' our productive energy. It is a question of Germany alone, not a word of the rights of others. Always 'Germany above all!' That and nothing else.

"For security of Europe.

"On the other hand, what are the aims of France and her allies? 'For the security of Europe,' for the guarantee necessary 'for the equilibrium of existing states,' for a sane atmosphere to breathe, for the 'rebuilding of dismembered countries.' One party is willing to fight to the finish for liberty, the other for domination.

"Final victory will be ours, and for these reasons: First, the justice of our cause. We shall never tire of repeating it, for, from consciousness of the task is born the spirit of sacrifice and of heroism. What would the French people be if they did not have that thought ever before them? By saving France they save humanity; this is their anchor. That very admiration which our enemies express for our soldiers comes from the conviction that the French armies are fighting for that ideal. As M. Paul Deschanel said: 'France is always the France of Joan of Arc and of Valmy.' Yes, that is not a phrase, it is not an article of rhetoric. Our humblest soldier dies without complaint because he has these noble ideas planted in his heart.

"The Kaiser, with that cunning strain that runs through all his talk, says that the allied powers attacked Germany 'after ten years of preparation.' That certainly is. At the moment of the outbreak of war Germany was prepared; the allied powers were not. It was not alone the general organization of the military forces that were neglected by them, but also the general feeling, buoyed by a sinister optimism. We did not think about war; the national resources were organized for peace, whereas Germany had organized hers for war by militarism.

A New Spirit.

"And now we are accused! 'You annoy me,' said the wolf. The sheep has found out the folly of his optimism and, surprised at first, also has become wolf and shown his teeth. During the last year the allied powers have opposed a national organization to that organization which surprised them. France, Great Britain and Russia have adopted a new spirit; the pacifist has become the militarist!

"They have forced us to fight. Very well, we will fight. And here is a new gauge of success. During the first year the enemy had the advantage of surprise. He could not have too much disdain for the 'miserable little armies' opposed to him. His turn will come to be surprised. Armies are springing from the soil he menaces.

"There is no doubt that he already has called upon all his reserves, and that at a time when ours and those of our allies, the British and Italians (and without doubt to-morrow other allies, the Balkan States and Japan, already involved, will come into line), are growing in magnitude. Germany has no other card to play, and several troops still rest in our hands.

"Poland is invaded. Warsaw is occupied. But the Russian armies have

HANOTAUX TELLS WHY VICTORY MUST COME

Allies Are Growing in Strength; Know Their Cause is Just

Paris, Sept. 7.—An article headed "For the Final Victory," by Gabriel Hanotaux in the Figaro, gives expression in stirring language to the thoughts of the France of to-day, confident of victory, ready to fight until that victory is complete, no matter what the cost and in no way discounting the sacrifices that victory will entail. Mr. Hanotaux writes:

"The governments of the allied powers renewed solemnly their agreement to continue the contest to the end on the very day that the Russians evacuated Ivangorod and Warsaw. Such a coincidence breathes the most grave and intense resolution. It is easy to be energetic when success is at hand; when fortune shows herself to be less favorable it is harder. After one year of war, Russia, France, Great Britain and Italy are persevering in the task which their consciences have dictated to them. The Germanic empires, defeated for a time, have profited by the circumstances furnished by a disarmed opponent. Hurling against her all their available forces, they have snatched a victory, have routed her armies, occupied vast territories, a kingdom and a capital. Fortune has placed this sudden burden upon the allies just at the moment when things seemed most favorable.

Until Victory Comes.

"What does it matter? We will fight until the inevitable turn of the wheel comes, until the enemy is exhausted—until victory comes.

"The principal parts of the message of President Poincare and the proclamation of the Kaiser illustrate the two political systems and the objectives of the opposing camps. The Kaiser says: 'Working heroically, we will suffer and persevere without flinching until peace comes, a peace that will offer us the necessary guarantees, military, political and economic, for our future; a peace which will fulfill the conditions for the development of our productive energy both at home and upon the free sea. M. Poincare says: 'The only peace which the republic can accept is that which will guarantee the security of Europe, which will enable us to breathe, to live and to work; which will rebuild the dismembered country and which will protect us with efficacy against all offensive recourse of the Germanic ambitions.'

"It is all very well for the Kaiser to protest that 'no desire of conquest has pushed Germany into the war.' What is the Kaiser's policy? Military and political guarantees, economical advantages, the freedom of the sea. What sense do these words make if they are not the insolent revindication of Germanic expansion, affirmed for the hundredth time by the Weltpolitics? 'Our future,' our productive energy. It is a question of Germany alone, not a word of the rights of others. Always 'Germany above all!' That and nothing else.

"For security of Europe.

"On the other hand, what are the aims of France and her allies? 'For the security of Europe,' for the guarantee necessary 'for the equilibrium of existing states,' for a sane atmosphere to breathe, for the 'rebuilding of dismembered countries.' One party is willing to fight to the finish for liberty, the other for domination.

"Final victory will be ours, and for these reasons: First, the justice of our cause. We shall never tire of repeating it, for, from consciousness of the task is born the spirit of sacrifice and of heroism. What would the French people be if they did not have that thought ever before them? By saving France they save humanity; this is their anchor. That very admiration which our enemies express for our soldiers comes from the conviction that the French armies are fighting for that ideal. As M. Paul Deschanel said: 'France is always the France of Joan of Arc and of Valmy.' Yes, that is not a phrase, it is not an article of rhetoric. Our humblest soldier dies without complaint because he has these noble ideas planted in his heart.

"The Kaiser, with that cunning strain that runs through all his talk, says that the allied powers attacked Germany 'after ten years of preparation.' That certainly is. At the moment of the outbreak of war Germany was prepared; the allied powers were not. It was not alone the general organization of the military forces that were neglected by them, but also the general feeling, buoyed by a sinister optimism. We did not think about war; the national resources were organized for peace, whereas Germany had organized hers for war by militarism.

A New Spirit.

"And now we are accused! 'You annoy me,' said the wolf. The sheep has found out the folly of his optimism and, surprised at first, also has become wolf and shown his teeth. During the last year the allied powers have opposed a national organization to that organization which surprised them. France, Great Britain and Russia have adopted a new spirit; the pacifist has become the militarist!

"They have forced us to fight. Very well, we will fight. And here is a new gauge of success. During the first year the enemy had the advantage of surprise. He could not have too much disdain for the 'miserable little armies' opposed to him. His turn will come to be surprised. Armies are springing from the soil he menaces.

"There is no doubt that he already has called upon all his reserves, and that at a time when ours and those of our allies, the British and Italians (and without doubt to-morrow other allies, the Balkan States and Japan, already involved, will come into line), are growing in magnitude. Germany has no other card to play, and several troops still rest in our hands.

"Poland is invaded. Warsaw is occupied. But the Russian armies have

FOUND JEWELS WORTH $5,000 UNDER STONE

Regina, Sept. 7.—Members of the city detective department spent Labor Day in a somewhat unorthodox way. A wire was received by the local chief from the head of the police department at Calgary stating that John Shaw, recently arrested there for robbing in Brandon, Regina, Saskatoon, Moose Jaw and Edmonton, had stated that certain articles of jewelry would be found under a telegraph pole in the east end of the C. P. R. yards here. No further information was given. As there are something like two hundred poles of this kind in the east end of the C. P. R. yards, the detectives had quite a job on their hands. However, three of them commenced yesterday morning and worked through until dark without success.

In disgust, the detectives were about to give up when one of them decided he would have one more try. Prying aside a big stone at the foot of one of the poles, the detective took out a shovelful of earth and exposed to view a treasure pile. Jewels of every description lay open to the detectives' astonished gaze. The jewels were taken immediately to the police department and a value of over $5,000 has been placed on it.

FELL 200 FEET.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Lieut. Morrow and Private Kunkry sustained severe injuries in a 200-foot fall with an aeroplane at Brownsville, Texas, but will recover. The aeroplane was completely destroyed.

General Funston to-day reported the accident to the war department, but failed to state when it occurred or the cause.

Morrow is reported in semi-conscious condition to-day with the extent of his injuries undetermined. Kunkry is suffering with a broken cheekbone and lacerated knee.

KILLED THEMSELVES WITH A REVOLVER

Sorrento, Sept. 7.—Count Goffredo Gaetani, a lieutenant in the Italian army, and Baroness Waldeszen Reigers, daughter of the Dutch minister to Rome, were found dead to-day in Gaetani's apartment, as the result of a suicide pact. A note left by the couple read as follows: "It being impossible for us to live separated, we have decided to die. Bury us together."

Count Gaetani was married. Finding that he loved the baroness, he sought death at the front. He was wounded recently and was convalescent. He and the baroness were prominent in society in Rome. The couple ended their lives with a revolver.

SIX WERE MURDERED BY GERMAN PIRATES

London, Sept. 7.—The British steamship Cymbeline was sunk by a German submarine. Six members of the crew were killed and six were injured. Thirty-one others were handed safely.

The Cymbeline was a tank steamship of 4,505 tons gross and 370 feet long. She was owned by the Bear Creek Oil & Shipping Company, of Liverpool. She was reported last as having sailed from Port Arthur, Texas, August 12, and Norfolk, Va., August 21, for Dartmouth, Eng.

VESSEL TORPEDOED WITHOUT WARNING

Statement Made by Capt.
Main, of Hesperian; Passenger Saw Torpedo

Queenstown, Sept. 7.—Capt. Main, of the Allan liner Hesperian, which sank 78 miles southwest of Fastnet while being towed to port after having been damaged by an explosion, made the statement yesterday that the vessel had been torpedoed and that no warning had been given. As soon as Capt. Main landed in Queenstown he proceeded to the admiralty office and made his report.

Those landed with him were thirteen officers and twenty-five men who remained with the liner to the last. Two mine sweepers and two admiralty tugs attempted to tow the Hesperian into port, but the ship, partly filled with water, was unmanageable, and the sea so heavy that little progress could be made.

Names of missing second cabin passengers are:
Miss Bannister, Mrs. Fisher, Joseph Fowler, Mrs. Hannah Fowler, Maria Jenkins, and Miss Murray.

Montreal, Sept. 7.—There was no gun on the steamship Hesperian, according to an opinion expressed yesterday by Andrew H. Altman, of the Allan line, in commenting on the dispatch of the American consul at Queenstown, which indicated that the steamship had a 47-inch gun mounted astern.

"I am practically certain there was no gun mounted on the Hesperian," said Mr. Altman. "We have no guns mounted on any of our ships unless they have been taken over by the government for use as transports. Then they can arm them as they like, for they are classed then as auxiliary warships. But our passenger liners are not armed in any way, and when the Hesperian sailed from Montreal she certainly carried no gun. She was in port in England for a week and we have had no information whatever that during that time anything was done to her in the way of putting on a gun."

A 47 is a pretty big gun, and in order to mount one of them on a liner the entire inside of the ship would have to be braced up. I don't think it possible that a gun could have been put on the Hesperian."

London, Sept. 7.—According to the Daily Mail, Mrs. Chantham, of Montreal, one of the survivors of the Hesperian, says she saw a torpedo coming as she bailed over the ship's side.

ROBBERS TRIED TO GET PEARL NECKLACE

Chicago, Sept. 7.—A pearl necklace for which Mr. Armour was obliged to pay $9,600 in customs duties when he brought it to this country from France in 1901 is believed by the police to have been the loot sought by two robbers who entered the home of J. Ogden Armour here last night and escaped with loot valued at $7,500.

The necklace was valued by government appraisers at more than $15,000. The jewelry stolen by the robbers consisted mainly of diamonds. A pocketbook containing $75 was the only cash they got.

Mrs. Armour, in a struggle with the robbers, was struck on the head with a "billy," her injuries being slight.

INTERRUPTED BY SHOCKS.

New York, Sept. 7.—The Central and South American cable company today reported that earthquakes had interrupted its cable lines by San Juan del Sur, Costa Rica, and Salinas Cruz. The report states that the shocks were very heavy in Costa Rica, but there are no indications of loss of life in these districts.

HONORS FOR BRAVE CANADIAN SOLDIERS

Major J. A. Hesketh, of Lord Strathcona's Horse, Won D. S. O., Distinguished Conduct Medals.

London, Sept. 7.—Decorations for sixteen Canadians, including the Distinguished Service Order for Major James Arthur Hesketh, of Lord Strathcona's Horse, and Distinguished Conduct Medals for fifteen privates and non-commissioned officers, were announced last night.

Major Hesketh won the Distinguished Service Order by conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. The announcement said of him:

"On the first of August, near Mesines, a magazine in a farm containing much small arm ammunition and many bombs and grenades, such as the infantry use, was set on fire by the enemy's shells. One box of ammunition began to burn and cartridges were exploding in all directions when Major Hesketh left his dugout and entered the farm, which was still under heavy shell fire. He put out the fire and removed all the ammunition. His risk was very great, and but for his gallant action all the reserve ammunition would have been destroyed."

Distinguished Conduct Medals have been awarded to Pte. H. T. Cameron, No. 3 Ambulance, 1st Division; Sergt. Major C. Collins, Strathcona's Horse; Pte. E. Gledhill, 1st Battalion; Lieut. Sergt. W. F. Hart, 4th Battalion; Color Sergt. J. Hay, 8th Battalion; Pte. E. H. Hester, 3rd Battalion; Cpl. S. Hobbday, 3rd Battalion; Lieut. Cpl. P. Wing, 10th Battalion; Sgt. J. McDonald, Princess Patricia's; Pte. J. W. McKie, 5th Battalion; Sgt. D. Morris, now in King Edward's Horse; Sergt. G. A. Mote, 3rd Battalion; Company Sergt. Major C. Owen, 1st Battalion; Cpt. J. E. Palmer, 10th Battalion; Pte. H. Vincent, 1st Battalion.

London, Sept. 7.—The wife of Prince Adolph, third son of the kaiser, gave birth to a daughter on Sunday. The child died soon after its birth. The condition of the princess is reported to be satisfactory to her physicians.

TWO MEN AND WOMAN ARRESTED IN ATHENS

Athens, Sept. 7.—The arrest of two men and a woman charged with trafficking in messages addressed to King Constantine and the general staff of the Greek army by representatives of belligerents on both sides in the war caused a sensation.

It has been established that German and Austrian messages were sent to Russia, although many dispatches from the British admiralty are said to be missing.

The persons arrested are charged with selling information impartially to both sides.

MANY OPERATING JITNEYS.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Not a trolley in this city moved to-day. Last night's conference between representatives of the company and striking employees brought no results and the strike to-day seemed as far from settlement as ever. Many strikers are operating jitney busses.

BORDEN WAS AT HIS OFFICE YESTERDAY

Ottawa, Sept. 7.—Just back from his trip to the motherland and France, Sir Robert Borden has lost no time in getting down to work. The prime minister was at his office yesterday bright and early, though it was a government holiday. A series of cabinet councils will be held this week and a number of important questions held in abeyance during Sir Robert's absence will be taken up.

It is not known as yet what the prime minister's attitude is in regard to the proposed extension of the life of this parliament. This question, is one which probably will be taken up and dealt with at an early date. The probabilities meanwhile are against a fall session, unless for the purpose of meeting some special need. The majority of those of Parliament Hill look for a short session early in the new year. The usual departmental preparation customary at this time of the year is in progress, however.

EVERYTHING OF VALUE TAKEN FROM BODIES

Gold Bar, Wash., Sept. 7.—The most brutal double murder ever known in the history of Snohomish county was committed near here on Saturday night, when Edward Pfeiffer, of this place, and his brother-in-law, Moritz Schneider, of Port Wayne, Ind., old men, were killed. No other motive for the crime is known than robbery, although, especially in the case of Schneider, the condition in which the bodies were left would indicate that there was an element of revenge in the crime. Everything of any value at all had been removed from both bodies.

Justice of the Peace Noah Shakespeare was summoned from Everett and held an investigation late in the afternoon.

Prosecuting Attorney O. T. Webb and Deputy Sheriff Fred Luke, who had been investigating the case since morning, had little evidence to offer which might implicate any person with the crime. The bakery of Frank Pfeiffer, son of one of the dead men, was searched and socks similar to the one used to commit the crime were found in his living quarters and footprints found near the scene of the crime tallied with his footprints.

The court held him and a companion as witnesses and left them in charge of the sheriff.

ARRIVED SAFELY.

Halifax, Sept. 7.—A private cable from London announces the arrival at Plymouth yesterday of the steamship Caledonia with the Royal Canadian regiment aboard. The steamship sailed from Halifax on August 29.

CHILD DIED.

London, Sept. 7.—The wife of Prince Adolph, third son of the kaiser, gave birth to a daughter on Sunday. The child died soon after its birth. The condition of the princess is reported to be satisfactory to her physicians.

Fussy Old Lady (who has come up to London from the country for the first time)—"Oh, constable, where will I get the bus for Piccadilly?" Irish Policeman—"Sure, you will get it in the back, ma'am, if you don't look out."

FAMOUS PICTURES

"A New Trail" hangs in the offices of practically all the motor car manufacturers of Canada. And nearly every auto dealer from the Atlantic to the Pacific has one of the pictures somewhere on his premises.

The motoring editor of a Winnipeg daily wrote a story about this picture, giving the characters names and creating a regular Indian plot.

"A New Trail" is symbolical of the trip made in 1912 by an auto equipped with Dunlop Traction Tread Tires. The journey from Halifax to Vancouver comprised forty-one days of actual travel. It was a tire record which has never been equalled anywhere.

As the motorists on this big trip had to blaze many trails, the artist visualizes the impression that the "V" marks on the ground have become, as it were, a new road emblem in the life of the country—a trail imprint sufficient even to awaken the interest of the red man.

$100 in gold for the best stories about this and the other "Famous Pictures." The stories to be written by Canadian children, under fifteen, whose parents, brothers, sisters or relatives own autos, motorcycles, or bicycles equipped with one or more Dunlop Traction Tread Tires.

RICHARD LOW DRURY.

R. L. Drury, whose death took place on Saturday evening, was one of the best-known and most highly esteemed of Victoria's citizens. He passed away, bowing submissively to inscrutable decree, while at the zenith of his mental powers, and with, as his friends believed, many years of a useful and honorable career before him. Mr. Drury was eminently fitted, as his record in several capacities proved, to serve the community. He took a deep interest in public affairs, federal, provincial, municipal and educational. Had his physical constitution been equal to his mental powers, he unquestionably might have become a national figure, just as his diligence, industry and probity gained for him a leading position in the private business to which he devoted his acknowledged and proved talents.

Mr. Drury was a Liberal by heredity and from conviction. His uncle, Hon. Charles Drury, was for many years Minister of Agriculture in the Mowat government, which for a long term of years held power in the province of Ontario. Yet he never was a bitter partisan, notwithstanding the intensity of his convictions. Although he took a prominent part in the political controversies of this province for nearly a quarter of a century his natural disposition was to avoid the use of personalities, and to the end he retained the respect and friendship of his political opponents. He enjoyed in a high degree the confidence of Liberal leaders in this province and in the Dominion, and his lamented death will leave a gap in the official corps of the party that will be hard to fill.

To Mrs. Drury and her family, as well as to all relatives, we extend our sincere sympathy.

AN EXTRAORDINARY PROPOSAL.

The fact will be remembered that Mr. Bowser proposed by a vote of the Legislature to extend the term of the existing House one year beyond its constitutional limit. He would have done it too but for a strong protest from an influential quarter—and perhaps Sir Richard is sorry now it was not done despite the protest. Yet Mr. Bowser is a modest, self-effacing man compared with some of his Tory contemporaries at Ottawa. They purpose extending the life of the present parliament three years beyond the duration of the war! They ask the opposition to become a consenting party to this most extraordinary arrangement. This is what they call an extremely reasonable request, and they say if it be not granted there must be an immediate, or approximately immediate, election. They might just as reasonably propose that the Liberals should consent to a permanent suspension of the constitution, with a reversion to arbitrary rule. Hon. "Bob" Rogers wanted an election some months ago. There was a reason for that in the then pending revelations in Manitoba. That blow has fallen, and Hon. "Bob" may be taken as politically obliterated and the province lost to the government with the disaster that has befallen the notorious "machine." Sir Robert Borden's supporters naturally desire that these things should be forgotten before a Dominion general election is held. That is the reason why they ask that a parliament which still has more than a year of its life to run shall have its term extended for three years beyond the duration of the war. There is no other reason under the sun for submitting such a preposterous proposition. The probability is that the war will be over before October, 1916. If, unfortunately, such should not be the case, the matter of postponing an election until the conditions become normal reasonably may be considered.

SEPT. 7, 1914.

On September 7, 1914, the French war office issued the following bulletin: "A general action started on the line through Nanteuil le Haudouin Meaux, Sezanna, Vitry le Francois, extending to Verdun. Thanks to the vigorous action of our troops, strongly supported by the British, the Germans started retreating." This was the first official announcement of the great conflict which will be known in history as the Battle of the Marne, although for the most part the decisive stages were fought south of that river. The news that the Germans had begun to retreat sent the Parisians wild with joy. They had been suffering the most acute anxiety. They knew nothing of Joffre's plans, but they did know that the French and British troops had been retreating for ten days, and every retreat after a rearguard action was calculated to depress them terribly and to conjure in their minds the spectre of 1870 in ever-terrifying proportions. The clouds which lowered over Paris spread their shadows on the capitals of all the allied nations, though illumined at Petrograd by the splendid victories of Ruzsky and Dimitrieff in Galicia.

Hence we can understand the galvanic effect of the simple statement that the enemy had begun to retreat. As a matter of fact, however, the retirement of Von Kluck from the dangerous angle into which he had plunged did not mean that the issue of the Marne had been decided. It meant only that for the moment Paris was safe. The critical sector was not the district immediately east of Paris, but the centre, of which Vitry le Francois was the acute point, and the Lorraine front where de Castelnau for a fortnight had been holding the enemy beyond the gates of Nancy. Had the French centre given way or had Nancy been captured the allied armies would have been in deadly peril, no matter what progress they had made against Von Kluck. But the centre held firm, while de Castelnau filled the Kaiser's cup of humiliation to the brim by his impregnable defence of the Grande Couronné of Nancy. It was on that eastern front, that Wilhelm awaited the verdict of the battle, surrounded by his staff he was ready to make a triumphant entry into the capital of French Lorraine. He was sure of the result. He foresaw another Sedan with the overlordship of Europe and world dominion behind it.

Meanwhile the French and British advance was proceeding with clock-like precision. Von Kluck, assailed on flank and rear by the French army which Joffre had concealed in Paris, had been forced across the Marne and was facing desperately the new enemy on the Oureq. The Prussian guard was floundering in the marshes of St. Gond, into which Poch's unparalleled exploit had thrown them; the German centre began to give way; the Crown Prince's army which had penetrated to the southwest of Verdun—a dangerous advance—was being hurled back upon the Argonne. Finally the entire German front broke; the Kaiser saw Nancy slip from his grasp and Germany lost not only the battle of the Marne but the war.

Several features which puzzled observers at the time in connection with this history-making struggle have since become clear. It will be recalled that Von Kluck, whose plunging course had brought him within ten miles of the northern defences of Paris, suddenly veered southeast, a development which struck military observers with amazement, for by doing so he was exposing his army to a combined frontal and flank attack. This it was discovered afterwards, was due to the necessity of reducing the gap between him and the German force on his left. That hiatus had been caused by the withdrawal of one of the German armies to the eastern front in consequence of Russia's magnificent self-sacrificing incursion into East Prussia, where the Cossacks played havoc with the estates of the Berlin Junkers, and also to Austria's extremity in Galicia. Russia was in no position to invade Germany at the time. Nevertheless her pressure compelled the Germans to open a gap in their western battle-line. Von Kluck also harbored the delusion that he had practically destroyed French's "contemptible little army" and his spies had not informed him of the size of the force Joffre had organized in Paris for the moment of emergency.

The Battle of Marne was fought by the French and British according to plans prepared by Joffre ten days before, and every detail of the design of that imperturbable, far-sighted warrior was carried out to the letter. He was freely criticized for abandoning so much precious territory without making a determined stand. The evacuation of Lille, Amiens, Soissons and Rheims, together with several lines of fortifications upon which vast sums had been expended, without striking a blow, struck one school of strategy with horror. But nothing could shake his iron resolution. Discharging incompetents by the hundreds, re-equipping and reorganizing his original armies and creating new ones as he drew the enemy to the battle-ground he had chosen, he awaited his "day."

Attention has been invited to the analogy between the retirement of the French and British from Mons and Lorraine and the masterly retreat of the Russians from Galicia. Our allies last May were similarly outclassed in men and munitions. Threatened with envelopment, they are still retreating to ground of their own choice near their sources of supply just as Joffre's army retired to his chosen line last fall. The Russians have evacuated their fortresses, cities and towns in precisely the same way that the western allies abandoned similar points in their twelve days' retreat. The Russian retirement, of course, is much more extensive and their losses are much greater, but relatively the territory abandoned is not as important as Belgium and northern France, while the Russian armies are much larger. Whether the analogy will be crowned with a similar result remains to be seen. If it is not it will be the first time an enemy has penetrated into Russia and escaped disaster.

The Boston Transcript thinks the descriptive word "Machiavellian" must hereafter give place to "kultur." It says:—"There is cause to wonder if there are really any limits to the scope and the ambition of German intrigues in the United States. Certainly these have already gone far beyond all previous conceptions of possibility. German government gold has been used in this country to serve German ends at our expense, with a profusion, an audacity—and a hypocrisy—that are simply astounding. There was long ago a great campaign, ostensibly American in origin and for the promotion of American commerce, for the purchase of the interned German ships, which was in fact a purely German campaign for the purpose of creating trouble between the United States and the allies. There have been innumerable protests against American sales of military munitions, yet at the same time German agents in this country were themselves buying all such goods that they could find in the market. Germans have been unsparing in the denunciations of the American press as venal under the influence of British gold—which, by the way, is a lie—while at the same time a professedly 'neutral' and 'American' paper has been edited by a German in the German interest and has been kept going with subsidies of German gold. There have been protests against war news from French and British sources as untruthfully colored or fabricated outright to serve the ends of those countries; yet it is now disclosed that there has been an extensive system of circulation of news 'made in Germany' and made without so much regard for truth as for its pro-German effect upon American opinion. There were posters, campaigns and letter-writing campaigns, and petitions, and what not else, ostensibly conducted by Americans in behalf of American neutrality, but in fact conceived and conducted by German agents; with German gold, for the impairment of American neutrality and the control of American policy in German interest. 'The trail of the serpent is over it all.'"

Germany has three excuses for breaking another of her pledges to the United States. (a) The Hesperian was an armed ship, (b) she was sunk by a mine, (c) the submarine commander had left his base before he could be instructed as to his method of future operations. Any one of the "kultural" excuses, apparently, would have been satisfactory to the United States, which, of course, has had no reason in the light of recent experiences to question the good faith of Germany.

No assurances are needed that Washington will act with great deliberation in considering the case of the Hesperian or any other case. In fact, the sublime faith of the United States, as expressed by President Wilson and his cabinet, in the good faith of German assurances, considering domestic and foreign experiences, is almost beyond human credulity.

Herman Ridder confesses that he is in financial difficulties. An extraordinary admission considering the prodigality with which von Bernstorff has been distributing funds amongst protagonists of "kultur" in the United States. Why has the New York Staats Zeitung been passed over? And yet the probabilities are that Herman is not the only German at home or abroad who is "up against it."

The fact that the Huns no longer sing hymns of praise when their brother pirates sink passenger ships and drown non-combatants is no sign that they have repented. It is merely an indication that almost universal disgust with their devilish practices is impelling them to suppress their natural inclinations.

The naval authorities of the United States are talking of "scrapping" all the submarine sisters of the craft which went down off Honolulu and refused to come up. We shall have some pertinent comment upon this matter at a more convenient season, and it

There is reason to believe, that von Tirpitz is still directing the operations of the only section of the Kaiser's high seas fleet which dares to come out of its hole.

They can say what they like about Teddy, but it may be that the American people are more interested just now in his remarks than in the doings of the president.

The pall-bearers were H. C. Brewster, Colonel the Hon. E. G. Prior, Hon. P. S. Lampman, R. T. Elliott, K. C. Joshua Kingham and B. C. Nicholas.

The late Mr. Drury was born at Crown Hill, township of Oro and county of Simcoe, Ontario, on May 2, 1863. He was the son of Richard Drury, a prominent farmer of that district, whose father had come from Kenilworth, Warwickshire, and his mother had been a Miss Katherine Low, a native of Dublin, Ireland. He was educated at the public school in Crown Hill and at the model school and collegiate institute in Barrie. Among his school-fellows were Lyman Poore Duff, afterwards a judge of the supreme court of B. C., and now on the bench of the supreme court of Canada; G. T. Somers, now a well-known financial and insurance man, president of the Sovereign Bank, and a former member of the board of trade of Toronto; and Albert Dymont, who was for several years member of the House of Commons for East Algoma.

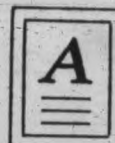

For some time Mr. Drury studied law in Barrie, but before he had completed his course he was induced to come to British Columbia by a friend, E. A. Crease, now a barrister in Nelson, and he settled in Victoria in 1890. He was for a short time in the office of the late H. Dallas Helmcken, K. C., but soon abandoned his intention of following the legal profession, although he would have made a success in it, and he took up the business of insurance, especially that of life insurance, and in this his sterling qualities brought him marked success.

He represented a number of New York companies, when he first took up the business, but at the time of the insurance investigation in New York in the late nineties he severed his connection with these and devoted all his attention to the Ontario Mutual, which has since become the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada. For this company he built up a very large business in B. C., and was appointed the provincial manager, but as the demands of the office grew he in time devoted his abilities to the management of the Victoria office.

Coming from a Liberal family, and one which gave an uncle, Hon. Charles Drury, to the public life of Ontario as minister of agriculture in the Mowat cabinet, Mr. Drury all his life was an ardent member of that party, and his time and means were devoted to the furtherance of its policies. When he first came to Victoria he was one of the small band of Liberals who kept the faith alive here, and he was up to the very last active in the interests of good government on Liberal lines. In 1906 he and George Riley, now Senator, contested the Victoria seats with the sitting members, Hon. E. C. Prior and the late Thomas Earle, and they made quite a reduction in the majorities relative to the growth in the voting population, and in the city proper, defeating the Conservative candidates.

At the provincial election of 1903 Mr. Drury was one of the four Liberal members elected in opposition to the McBride government, and was second in the poll. He sat for the city until the dissolution in 1907, and while a member took a very prominent part in all the debates of the house, and was a valued member of the private bills committee. Always a fine speaker, with clearness of diction and keen marshalling of his thoughts and facts, he was a power in criticism of policies and in offering constructive advice to the ministry. On the platform, as thousands will recall, he was equally forceful, and in every campaign, federal or provincial, that has taken place since he came to Victoria he had borne a valiant part both as speaker and

Grand Fall Opening of Millinery and Ready-to-Wear

Wednesday, Sept. 8, 1915

When one of the most complete Fall stocks of Ladies' Millinery, Coats, Suits, Evening Dresses, Wraps and Furs ever shown will be displayed for your careful inspection.

The New Fall Millinery

The Fall season in Millinery promises to be an unusually interesting one, from the standpoint of variety in style. This is due chiefly to the fact that there are diversified tendencies of fashion evident in the Suits, Coats and Dresses, which naturally call for corresponding profusion in Hats.

The element of variety is expressed, largely in the matter of shapes, especially as regards size. For instance, there is the very wide-brimmed sailor which curves away from the face at some extraordinary angle or droops low on the side, and which, except for the exceedingly simple trimmings, might easily be converted into a picture hat.

The flat-brimmed sailor of the late season also has representations, this feature being accentuated by extremely flat trimmings.

Toques and Tricornees—In direct contrast to the sailor idea is the close-fitting toque or turban inspired by the many variations in costumes. The variety of shapes in this order are very numerous. Tricornees are also in excellent representation.

Velvet the Smart Material

In materials, velvet has no superior. Black is by far the most popular, but there is also a goodly showing of the darker shades. Various novelty silks and plushes are also employed, and most trimmings are characterized by extreme simplicity.

States may change its attitude toward what constitutes arming a merchant vessel, and in the light of the development of submarine warfare, may hold that the mounting of small defence guns only, heretofore considered as not arming a ship, may be considered arming which will remove the vessel from the non-combatant class.

State department officials gave strong indications of this to-day and stated that when the United States, at the beginning of the war, declared that passenger ships carrying defence guns of small calibre would be permitted to enter and leave American ports, and would not be classed as war vessels, submarine warfare had not developed to its present stage. Officials pointed out that a 4.7-inch gun, such as Consul Frost claimed had been mounted on the Hesperian, is of sufficient size to sink a submarine.

Proof of this fact, officials think, might be construed as a purpose to challenge the German submarines.

TUNNELS ARE OPENED THROUGHOUT AREA

Last Tunnel Pierced on Saturday for Northwest Sewer System

By the breaking through on Saturday of a tunnel on Hereward road, near the crossing of the E. & N. railway by the new bridge, all the tunnel work from Selkirk water to the outfall at Macaulay Point, has been pierced. Additional work will, of course, be necessary in places to prepare the tunnel for the concrete pipe, but the incident of Saturday represents the most notable landmark so far in the completion of the system.

Now that the tunnel work, which is dangerous at all times, and is particularly so in the hard stratification which has been encountered under Victoria West, has been accomplished free from the accidents which usually accompany public works of this character, the engineering department is congratulating itself on the comparative freedom from serious personal injury to the staff. The anticipation of the assistant engineer is that the pipe will be laid in the various sections not yet complete by October 1. The three weeks which intervene before that date will entail considerable work, as some of the ground through which the pipe is being laid is damp and the concrete will have to be put in a position at a suitable time. This was the cause of the rearrangement of the work on Hereward road above the shaft, which is now in use. Here the tunnel runs out into a piece of soft earth excavation which was flooded when the trench was taken out earlier in the undertaking.

The successful completion of tunneling will enable the abandonment of the temporary pumping accommodation at Langford street, to deal with the low-lying area near the schools, the masonry being turned into the tunnel, and run out with the sewerage of other districts. There is no reason to doubt that by the second week of October the whole of the sewerage of Victoria West to be treated in this scheme, together with that from the Esquimalt district, will be reaching the sea at Macaulay Point.

When the present section is completed, including the laying of some temporary pipe in another tunnel which has not yet been connected up, attention will be directed to the syphon across Selkirk water, to connect up the Sunnyvale tunnel with the sewer north of the Gorge. In connection with the easements on five lots to be acquired there, in order to tie up with the Cecilia road tanks, installed eighteen months ago, an expropriation by-law is being introduced into city council this evening. This authorizes the land to be taken over, no equitable settlement having been reported upon to the finance committee for the purchase by negotiation.

PASS HOME NURSING

Twenty Candidates Take Standing in Examination Entitling Them to Certificate

An examination of Dr. W. J. C. Tomlin's class in home nursing, following the course conducted under the auspices of the Victoria centre of the St. John's Ambulance association, was held last Friday night by Dr. C. Denison Holmes, surgeon-examiner for the Victoria centre. Several of those who were examined did not pass, their respective total of marks obtained not being sufficiently high to entitle them to receive a certificate of competency in Home Nursing. The names of the twenty who passed are as follows:

—Mesdames Evelyn Clearhouse, Elizabeth Davidson, Lillian E. Macdonald, Minnie Monk, and Nora L. Monk; Misses Amy Day, Blanche Hampton, Anna Irvine, Dora B. L. Lawder, Maud Mitchell, Florence E. Newson, Ethel G. Ross, Dorothy Symes, Florence Symes, Marguerite Thompson, H. Dorothy Tilly, Margaret Tilly and Violet Warr.

The secretary of the centre has received the certificates for 35 members of the class in home nursing instructed last April and May by Dr. Arthur B. Hudson and examined on June 14 and 15. These will be ready for distribution before the close of this week, after they have been signed by the local officials and doctors connected with the class.

Arrangements have been made to commence new classes in home nursing and first aid at the rest room, Y. W. C. A., Douglas street, full particulars of which will be announced shortly.

BUYING MONEY.

Many people are not aware that it is possible to buy real money and that, too, on the instalment plan. For instance an annual payment of $21.00 by a young man (only $2.00 a month) makes certain provision for the payment of $1,000.00 on his reaching a given age, with the additional safeguard that in the event of his death, all future payments are cancelled and the principal sum is at once paid to his family.

This is only one of very many attractive plans issued by the "Canada Life" for thrift insurance. We shall be glad to show you how it is done. Helsterman, Forman & Co., 1210 Broad Street, General Agents; F. Lewin and J. L. Haggett, Special Agents.

Asks Investigation.—The executive, at the request of lawyers for the Forest Mills of B. C. company, is to give attention to the need for an investigation of a fire at Comaplex on April 5. Considerable damage was done to the plant and it is believed it may not have been accidental.

MRS. WINN'S ADVICE TO WOMEN

Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be Restored to Health.

Kansas City, Mo.—"The doctors told me I would never be a mother. Every month the pains were so bad that I could not bear my weight on one foot. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had not finished the first bottle when I felt greatly relieved and I took it until it made me sound and well, and I now have two fine baby girls. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly for what it has done for me. I always speak a word in favor of your medicine to other women who suffer when I have an opportunity." — Mrs. H. T. Winn, 1225 Fremont Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Read What Another Woman Says:

Cumming, Ga.—"I tell some suffering women every day of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it has done for me. I could not eat or sleep, had a bad stomach and was in misery all the time. I could not do my housework or walk any distance without suffering great pain. I tried doctors' medicines and different patent medicines but failed to get relief. My husband brought home your Vegetable Compound and in two weeks I could eat anything, could sleep like a healthy baby, and walk a long distance without feeling tired. I can highly recommend your Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did, and you are at liberty to use this letter." — Mrs. Charlie Baggey, R. 3, Cumming, Ga.

Dr. Lindbergh Speaks to Big Audience on Great Changes Indicated.
Dr. B. W. Lindbergh, a member of the medical department of the University of Kansas City, and who for the past twelve years has occupied the chair of chemistry at that institution, addressed a large audience in Belmont house board room last evening. His subject, "Signs of the Times," he dealt with in an able manner, bringing many stimulating ideas to his hearers. This evening he will speak at room 202, Campbell building, at 8 o'clock on the "Scientific Reasons for the Existence of Self."

"SIGNS OF THE TIMES"

Dr. Lindbergh, a member of the medical department of the University of Kansas City, and who for the past twelve years has occupied the chair of chemistry at that institution, addressed a large audience in Belmont house board room last evening. His subject, "Signs of the Times," he dealt with in an able manner, bringing many stimulating ideas to his hearers. This evening he will speak at room 202, Campbell building, at 8 o'clock on the "Scientific Reasons for the Existence of Self."

Speaking last evening the lecturer referred to the evidences in the world which point to the coming of a world teacher. As organizing secretary of the Order of the Star in the East he advocated preparing the way for this teacher in order that when he came his reception would not be death at the hands of the mob.

Some of the great geologic changes which have transpired in the earth since its formation were referred to by the speaker. More recently observations had been made which proved that great changes were even now in process of taking place. Scientists claimed that new land was rising in the Pacific, ethnologists believed they had proved through recent measurements taken by their commission that a new race was rising in the western portion of the United States. These things indicated that a change was coming, a new race being born, a new home being prepared.

Dr. Lindbergh illustrated his statement that every time a race or sub-race is born a teacher is provided to give that race its religion. Such a teacher came to the Hindus in Vyasa; to the Egyptians in Hermes; to the Iranians in Zoroaster; to the Greeks in Orpheus; to the later world in Christ. "We have sadly fallen away from the ideals of the Christian faith," said Dr. Lindbergh. "It is time that a new impulse should be given to guide the race upward. The reports of the ethnological commission show that a new race is growing up in this country."

The lecturer thought that the idea of the new sub-race would be unity and co-operation, and asked his audience to consider the number of fraternal societies there were in the world, greater than at any time known to history. There was a general spirit of unity and co-operation abroad in the land, even the trusts being but a logical outcome of this spirit.

There would have to be peace when the great teacher came. He could not do his work amongst strife. The European war was a preparation for peace of a much more permanent kind than the armed truce that had existed for years.

Shuswap and Okanagan Railway.—In the last Canada Gazette the C. P. R. Co. gives notice of an application to the board of railway commission for a recommendation to the government. In council for the sanction of a lease dated August 9, 1915, from the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway company as lessor to the Canadian Pacific Railway company as lessee of the railway of the first named company for a term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years from the first July, 1915.

Stadacona Park Concert.—The following programme will be given by the 58th Fusiliers' band in Stadacona park this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock: March, "Turquoise" (Fischer); overture, "Il Barbiere di Siviglia" (Rossini); waltz, "Toujours et Encore" (Lamotte); comic rag, "A Slippery Place" (Hacker); reminiscences of Balfe, (Godfrey); waltz, "Immerthellen" (Gungl); operatic potpourri, (Heincke); march, "The 58th" (Hunt); God Save the King.

The Gerhard Heintzman Player-Piano

The Standard player-piano of Canada, is the famous Gerhard Heintzman, known and loved from one end of the Dominion to the other. This splendid instrument will bring more real pleasure into your home than any other player-piano made. It is simple in its action, yet it is thoroughly efficient. It provides the knowledge of notes and keys that the untrained pianist lacks. The "soul" of the music remains for the player to supply. In this lies the charm and the value of this great player-piano.

Victoria, B. C.

Time was when some merchants vied with each other in extravagance of statement in their ads. The wise merchants of today vie with each other in the ACCURACY of their statements about goods and values. Nowadays deliberate misrepresentation in advertising would surely and quickly kill any store indulging in it.

AGES OF GENERALS.

German generals engaged in the great fight round Warsaw are all over 60, which rather discounts the theory that the tremendous strain of modern fighting calls for young generals. Von Hindenburg is 68, Mackensen is 64, Woytsch is 63 and Bluff is 61. Further, not one is a Prussian proper, though Hindenburg is an East Prussian, but his home is in Hanover. Two are Silesians of the province sliced from Austria by Frederick the Great. Von Falkenhayn, the chief of the staff, is much younger. He is 54, and a Brandenburg.

LABOR DAY SPENT IN AN ENJOYABLE MANNER

Thousands Gathered at the Beaches; Shriners and Boilermakers Hold Picnics

Labor day was passed in a very pleasant and enjoyable manner by most Victorians. Great crowds went picnicking to the beaches and adjacent points on the Interurban railways; others who did not wish to spend the holiday at home went abroad to Seattle and Vancouver, while many took pleasure in motoring, hunting, fishing and jaunting. The weather, while threatening early in the morning, turned out warm and enabled one and all to thoroughly enjoy their outings.

The outboard trains carried great crowds. The B. C. Electric cars running to Deep Cove had very little standing room when they left. The majority of the people were bound for Brentwood and Deep Cove. At the former place the local Shriners were holding their annual picnic and the boilermakers of this city were celebrating a similar event at the terminus of the line. About one hundred participated in each of the picnics.

There were many private picnic parties at Brentwood. At night a dance was held in the hotel there and was largely attended. The building of the electric line through the Spanish peninsula has added several choice, picturesque and delightful seaside resorts to Victoria's playgrounds. The line is just beginning to be appreciated. Another summer will no doubt find this road one of the best patronized on the island.

Shawnigan Lake, without doubt, proved the most popular centre of the holiday. Numerous Victorians left on Saturday afternoon to spend the weekend. Others went up on Sunday and the regular and special trains yesterday morning carried fair crowds. The regular train which came in from Nanaimo last night at 6.15 o'clock was taxed to its capacity and the special which came from Cowichan an hour and a half later had another tremendous crowd.

The gasoline coach running to Baxan Bay and Sidney carried fair crowds throughout the day.

The ferry steamers, arriving this morning from Vancouver and Seattle, brought home large numbers of Victorians in time for work. Some left on Friday afternoon's boats for the mainland and others got away the following day. The visitors all had a happy time in the larger cities.

Although no celebrations were arranged in this city, quite a few visitors came in from different parts. Young people from Vancouver and New Westminster came over for a change of air, and the Seattle boat brought in a heavy list of tourists.

Scattered along the many beaches between Dallas road and Cordova Bay were thousands of people basking in the warm sun. Fowl Bay, Cadboro Bay and Cordova Bay attracted the greatest number of picnic parties, but at the other beaches many people gathered to while away a few hours.

Although the season is getting late, the water at the bathing beaches was fairly warm yesterday and many of the younger set enjoyed a dive. At the Gorge there was a gay host of men and maidens swimming and diving and kiddie wading and paddling.

Many motorists went over the Malahat to Shawnigan, Cowichan, Nanaimo, and some who left on Saturday went through to Alberni. The roads were in excellent shape for the cars. Occasional showers were encountered, the rain falling very heavily at Cable Hill during the day.

One of the hardest jaunts made over the week-end ended last evening when the Y. M. C. A. senior campers pulled into their summer home at the Gorge. They set out on Saturday afternoon on a "bike" to Shawnigan Lake. They walked eighteen miles the first day and slept on the roadside for the night.

On Sunday they resumed their walk and reached Shawnigan at noon on Sunday. The campers put up at a shack until yesterday afternoon, when they embarked on an inbound train, and on arriving at Russell's station walked to camp.

The day was free from accidents of any kind and has been recorded as one of the most enjoyable Labor day's this city has had in many years.

"I must say these are fine scenes," exclaimed a young husband. "How could you say those are fine scenes?" Inquired the young wife's mother later reproachfully. "I didn't say they were fine," replied the husband. "I merely said I must say so!"

GARDEN PARTY PLANNED

Esquimalt Chapter, I. O. D. E., to Hold Event at Residence of Colonel Peters.

Esquimalt Chapter, I. O. D. E., has arranged for a garden party to be held on Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 6.30, at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. Peters, Head street, Esquimalt.

The undertaking is devised for the purpose of adding to the funds of this organization devoted to patriotic work, and it is hoped that the public will patronize the event liberally. Tennis is being arranged for, and there will be bridge for those who prefer this form of diversion. An art gallery, which will be entertaining and amusing, is being opened, and during the afternoon there will be musical numbers, afternoon tea, ice cream, etc.

Mrs. Matthews, resident of the Esquimalt chapter, is convener of the committee in charge of the arrangements, and through the generous action of Colonel and Mrs. Peters in throwing open their grounds for the occasion it is hoped that a creditable sum will be placed in the chapter fund.

"TRENCH BACK."

The latest complaint to get a name of its own in this war of surgical surprises is "trench back." Many cases are under treatment at the Kitchener Indian hospital, Brighton.

They come almost invariably from the trenches, says Captain Sandes, writing in the British Medical Journal.

Usually the injury is caused by sandbags or masses of earth hurled on the men's backs by bursting shells. Some patients have been so seriously injured that they have had to be carried on stretchers.

Fortunately a rapid and effective cure has been found, and quite helpless men have recovered after a short course of treatment.

Bananas are fit to eat as soon as they have lost all their green color, and remain fit, no matter how black they may be, so long as the skin is unbroken.

COMEDY AT DOMINION.

Leo Dittichstein's celebrated farce, with that inimitable screen comedian, John Barrymore, is being offered at the Dominion for the first part of this week. Those who were fortunate enough to witness Mr. Barrymore in the "Man From Mexico," can imagine that in "Are You a Mason?" he will have ample opportunity to demonstrate his ability as a laughter maker. Mr. Barrymore portrays the part of Frank Perry, a young married man with a weakness for staying out late at nights. When his wife announces that her chief desire in life is to have him become a Mason Perry grasps the opportunity for staying out several nights, explaining his numerous absences from home by the statement that he is spending his evenings at the lodge undergoing initiation. One night wife announces that her father, grand master, is coming to visit them. Perry's frantic efforts to keep his father-in-law from discovering his deceptions and the tangles in which he becomes involved, culminate in a situation which is one of the funniest ever conceived.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

More and more interest is being shown as the chapters of the "Diamond From the Sky" are shown on the screen at the Majestic theatre each Monday and Tuesday, and any who have not as yet seen this interesting and wonderful photoplay should not let this chance pass by. As the episodes are complete in themselves the story is easily picked up with the aid of the leaflets that are distributed, and the spectator becomes instantly familiar with the story as told in the most marvelous of picturizations. The eighth chapter, in two acts is to be seen to-day and to-morrow. It is entitled "A Mind in the Past."

COLUMBIA THEATRE.

Myrtle Stedman in "The Wild Olive," a picturization of Basil King's famous novel, is the feature offering at the Columbia for the first half of the week. Charlie Chaplin, the world's funniest comedian, is to be seen in one of his greatest film successes, "A Film Johnnie," a comedy with a thousand laughs. The Topical Budget, a British war picture gazette, will give the very latest war pictures direct from the front, making one of the strongest programmes ever presented at the Columbia.

On Wednesday another Charlie Chaplin contest will be held, the management having already received a number of entries from local imitators of this famous comedian. The contest will be held in conjunction with the regular amateur programme when something extra special is promised in this line.

ROYAL VICTORIA THEATRE.

The Royal Victoria theatre has arranged a strong programme for the holiday attraction. "The Man From the Desert" is a three-part feature production of the western Vitaphone company, under the direction of Ulysses Davis, strongly dramatic, especially in the earlier stages laid in the desert. "The Man From the Desert," calls it a story of the curse of greed, the greed of a man, who, returning east with $20,000, broods over the advantage of having twice that amount, until he robs his partner and leaves him to die of thirst.

The remainder of the story, presenting both of the former partners as wealthy men, deals with Warrington's deep-laid plans for the ruination of the man that wronged him, and his change of heart when success is in sight, because of his love for Spencer's daughter. William Duncan, George Sidor, and Myrial Gonzales take the leading parts in a well-directed company.

There will also be shown a "Trip to Mt. Rainier," which will be of interest to a large number of Victoria people, as quite a number have made this trip. A Selig pictorial with the latest news, two good comedies, and a one-reel comedy drama, will make up the balance of a strong and interesting programme.

THREE CAPACITY HOUSES

Godd Holiday Bill at Pantages Opens With Turn by the Gascoignes.

A versatile and thoroughly above-board entertainer is "the mere man" appearing in the Gascoignes' turn at Pantages theatre this evening. Three capacity houses, due to the holiday, no doubt, took the greatest interest in the succession of clever balancing and tossing acts which were so neatly run off in the first number on the bill. With such a fund of glib movements it would be easy for any person to work up a reputation as a sleight-of-hand performer, but Mr. Gascoigne prefers all his actions to be "quite obvious to the onlooker. His manner of lighting a cigar from the glowing ashes of a funnel of newspaper balanced on the tip of the "weed" was about the culminating exhibition of a sense of police, which is splendidly illustrated through a long succession of a ball, chair, bottle and other balancing. The actor, who had quite an amusing patter, had a fair assistant whose confidence was exhibited when she took a lofty perch in a chair balanced on his forehead.

The Scovell dancers present something considerably above the average vaudeville ideal of terpsichorean art. The company is made up of trained dancers. Miss Scovell herself as premiere-danseuse was graceful and finished in the dramatic dance of the tiger, with a company of girls in Gre-

SURVEYOR IN COURT

Chas. H. Topp Charged With Practising at Sooke Lake Without Being Duly Authorized.

Charles H. Topp, formerly city engineer for Victoria, was charged in the police court this morning with unlawfully practicing as a land surveyor in Sooke. The information is laid by David G. McNaughton and is to the effect that Mr. Topp "on or about August 17 at or near Sooke Lake unlawfully carried on the practice or profession of a surveyor of lands within the province of British Columbia without being duly authorized to practice as a land surveyor according to the provisions of the British Columbia Land Surveyors' act."

H. A. Maclean, K.C., is appearing for the complainant, and J. A. Aikman is representing the accused.

Mr. Maclean was anxious to proceed with the case, but Mr. Aikman explained that the summons had only been served on Mr. Topp at 8.30 o'clock this morning, although it had been sworn out seven days ago.

The complainant's counsel then offered to proceed to-morrow morning, owing to the fact that he was leaving on Thursday for Atlin and would not be back until the end of the month. Mr. Aikman, however, objected again on the grounds that he had another case in the police court which would have precedence and which would probably last all to-morrow morning. Counsel finally arranged to have the case remanded until next Tuesday and then let it go over until Mr. Maclean's return from the north.

RECONSIDER BEFORE GOING TO GOVERNMENT

Local Tax Sale Situation Has Been Modified Since Assn. Discussed Subject

In view of the determination of the city council, at its special meeting last Friday, to restrict the scope of the city tax sale next month, it was not surprising that the Civic Retrenchment association should desire to reconsider the position somewhat before going to the executive council with a definite application for special legislation on tax sales.

The resolution adopted at the recent public meeting of the Retrenchment association with regard to tax sales expressed the very positive objection of the men who are at present in arrears with their taxes to be compelled to find the money at a critical time in public and private finances. Hence the object of the meeting to-day.

The other aspect of the question is the municipal one, an attitude which is likely to overshadow all other questions at the meeting of the Union of British Columbia municipalities this month. The increase in arrears is a very serious one, and one which is causing general apprehension, particularly in the districts around the coast cities where speculation was rampant. The municipality must remain solvent, and if the money does not come in, borrowing must be resorted to, in order to maintain the public services.

Therefore any representations which might be made by the Retrenchment association to the government, in sympathy with similar argument from other property owning bodies, have to be weighed in the balance with the public interest. It is stated at the city hall that the recent decision not to sell property upon which taxes became delinquent in 1913 will reduce the number of properties to be advertised by nearly three-quarters of those which were originally planned to be offered in October. To judge from the discussion on the matter at the previous Retrenchment association meeting, it was felt that the property owners of 1913, when conditions were booming, should certainly be in a position to meet their responsibilities.

While taxation matters are of foremost importance, the influence of the Retrenchment association on the city council can be seen in the willingness to investigate the cost of garbage collection, for which a committee has been appointed. From time to time attention to this branch has been directed by the association with a view to urge reduction in maintenance expenses.

To-night's meeting is to be held in the board room at Belmont House.

A marriage of love is pleasant; a marriage of interest—easy; and a marriage where both meet—happy.—Addison.

POWER SCHOONER WILL GO TO GOLD STRIKE

Craft Being Provisioned at Seattle Leaves for North To-morrow

Seattle, Sept. 7.—Bound for Canyon Creek, twenty-five miles up the Kuskokwim river from Bethel, where there has been a rich gold strike, the power schooner P. J. Abler will leave Seattle to-morrow under charter to J. E. Shields and Capt. Louis Knafliash. She was owned by Edward Horn, who has sold her to San Francisco interests, from whom the vessel has now been chartered by Mr. Shields and Capt. Knafliash.

Mr. Shields said Saturday that over $100,000 in gold had been taken out by mining men at Canyon and that the camp had become so large that it was necessary to send a vessel loaded with supplies up the Kuskokwim to a point near the new diggings.

So great has been the gold excitement on the Kuskokwim that fishermen have deserted their trade and great difficulty is being experienced by owners of vessels engaged in this industry in manning their craft.

White men are receiving $2 a day, which is much more than they could earn in the fishing trade, so practically all of them deserted Bethel and the lower river for the gold camp.

The power schooner Bender Brothers, which sailed from Seattle to-night, will have shipments of supplies for the Canyon gold camp. The Bender, however, will only go as far as Bethel, where her freight for Canyon will be transhipped. The vessel will have a passenger list of from twenty to twenty-five.

Capt. E. H. Hoffman, who was in the Bender brothers on her last voyage, will go north as master of the schooner P. J. Abler. The Bender Brothers will have as her master Capt. Louis Knafliash, one of her owners.

J. E. Shields and Capt. Knafliash Saturday announced that they had purchased the schooner Hugh Hogan from the Tide Water Mill company, of Portland. The vessel is now at San Francisco, where she arrived recently from Alaska waters.

BIG WHALE CATCH.

Aberdeen, Sept. 7.—Nearly 350 whales is the result of the catch so far this season in the Bay City station. It is expected the total will be close to 400 at the close of the year. This year there have been more sperm whales than usual. The record is by far the highest of any year since the plant was established.

HOSPITAL CORPS IN ENGLAND

The arrival of the transports Scandinavian and Ebele, with the 5th Canadian General Hospital, under Lieut.-Col. Hart, and the 11th C. M. R.'s at Plymouth on Sunday evening is announced. The above picture shows the arrival of the hospital detachment at Vancouver on Aug. 21, the men being lined up on the deck of the Princess Mary, prior to debarking. Hundreds welcomed them at the C. P. R. docks, the nurses particularly getting a very hearty reception.

ONLY ONE DEEP-SEA ARRIVAL THIS WEEK

Awa Maru Expected Wednesday; Many Vessels Coming This Month

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Awa Maru, Capt. Mori, is the lone inbound deep sea vessel scheduled to berth at the outer wharf this week.

She, according to wireless advices received by the local agents, will berth Wednesday night at William Head and will proceed to the outer wharf the following morning. The Awa Maru has a capacity freight shipment, the bulk of her cargo being consigned for the Sound. She will discharge 771 tons here. Of the 112 steerage passengers aboard the vessel twenty-one will disembark here, the remaining 91 landing at Seattle.

Next week will also be rather slack, only two deep-sea vessels being scheduled to arrive. The Harrison Direct Line Civilian, Capt. Lord, is due to arrive here from the United Kingdom on September 15 and the following day the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Shidzuoka Maru is scheduled to dock from Oriental ports. She sailed from Yokohama on September 2.

No less than four boats are scheduled to arrive the last week of the month: September 23 the R. M. S. Niagara will arrive from Sydney, the following day the Mexico Maru, of the Osaka Steamship Co., will berth. September 25 the Blue Funnel liner Titan is due to arrive, and the last arrival of the month will be that of the C. P. R. lined Montague, expected to reach port on September 28 from the Orient.

Coming via the Panama canal in the service between the United Kingdom and North Pacific ports, the Harrison Direct liner Muscular left Glasgow on Saturday. She is due to arrive here on October 2.

SALVATOR DOCKS AND HAS ONE MAST GONE

Seattle, Sept. 7.—Minus her mizen masthead, which she lost in a violent squall 120 miles southwest of Cape Flattery, the schooner Salvator, under charter from Libby, McNair & Libby by J. J. Moore, of San Francisco, went ashore Sunday on the south jetty at the mouth of the Sound. Calls were sent for government life-savers to the Unimak and Coos bay stations.

The schooner passed out to sea from Everett August 28 with a full cargo of lumber for Australia. She encountered heavy winds after leaving the Cape and was making good progress on her voyage when a violent squall tore off the mizen masthead last Tuesday. As the loss would have handicapped her seriously on the long voyage to the Antipodes, the master turned the vessel back to the Cape, reaching it by a fine display of seamanship by all hands.

With the exception of the lost masthead, the schooner suffered no damage in the mishap.

VICTIMS OF BERI-BERI PLAGUE MAKE RECOVERY

Port Townsend, April 6.—The eight survivors of the crew of the Peruvian barque Alliance, who were placed in the marine hospital here for treatment for beri-beri, have recovered and six of them will rejoin the vessel, the other two having shipped on the steamer Elhu Thompson, sailing for Nome. After being placed in the hospital the disease soon disappeared, and the men regained their normal physical condition.

Word was received here yesterday that the Alliance has finished discharging 15,000 sacks of sugar at Vancouver, B. C., and would shift to the Sound to be docked for cleaning and repainting. She will then go to Port Angeles to load for Callao. The remaining members of the crew will probably board the vessel here.

TALITHYBIUS SAILS.

At 12:30 o'clock to-day the Blue Funnel liner Talithybius left with a 17,000 ton shipment of general merchandise for Oriental ports sailed from the outer wharf. Besides her huge cargo liner carried out several hundred Chinese steerage passengers 300 embarking at the docks.

LANDSLIDE DANGER WILL PASS NEXT YEAR

Steam Shovels Work Improving Canal to Prevent Blockade to Traffic

San Francisco, Sept. 7.—Major-Gen. George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama canal zone, declared in an address before the Commonwealth club that by the end of 1916 the danger of land-slides would be removed from the canal as far as a complete blockade to traffic was concerned.

"Our greatest slide since the completion of the canal delayed navigation but a single week, and a second slide took us but four days to clear," he said. "We have steam shovels at work night and day and by the end of next year we expect to have excavated all loose material. Then we will dredge the basins on each side of the canal prism at points where slides appear possible. The soft material and overhanging clay then will have a chance to shift without endangering the operation of the canal."

"In the work of building the canal," Gen. Goethals said, "aside from the completion of the waterway itself, we have kept always in mind the matter of defence against foreign attack. For this reason the government of the United States has retained control of all land in the zone, thus effectively preventing foreign settlement and consequent menace."

"I intend to take up with congress at the coming session the matter of opening the canal zone to settlement. In keeping with the policy of protection, however, I believe we should arrange to permit only Americans to do business there. My plan includes the setting aside of sites at each of the terminals where American manufacturers may build warehouses and have salesrooms for their wares."

GRACE DOLLAR HAS BEEN RE-FLOATED

Vessel Grounded Near Sinslaw Released by Her Own Power

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 7.—The Grace Dollar was floated Sunday night by her own power. She returned to port inside the Sinslaw.

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 7.—The steamship Grace Dollar, which had just loaded a cargo of lumber and taken passengers at Florence for San Francisco, went ashore Sunday on the south jetty at the mouth of the Sinslaw. Calls were sent for government life-savers to the Unimak and Coos bay stations.

"The Grace Dollar is owned by the Robert Dollar Steamship company, of San Francisco. She was built at Long Beach, Cal., in 1913. She is 221 feet long with a beam of 49 feet and 14 feet depth of hold. Her gross tonnage is 1,227 and her net tonnage 809. She was on her first trip to the Sinslaw, and was the first steamer of her class to enter that port, her visit having been made possible by recent harbor improvements. Her arrival at Florence last Wednesday was marked the occasion of a big celebration."

LARGE RUN HUMPBLOCKS REPORTED BY FISHERS

Everett, Sept. 9.—The latest surprise in the humpback salmon run, this season has been the appearance of the salmon banks of the largest school that has yet passed into the straits this year.

Heretofore only a scattering few have been running and the maximum haul was 4,000 made by the purse seiner Deba, Capt. O. Aagaard, off Richardson. But one fisherman is reported to have taken 12,000 humps yesterday, indicating that the few who remained on the banks are being repaid for their patience in waiting for the run.

BLOCKADE DECLARED OF ADRIATIC SEA

Italian Royal Decree Sets Out Conditions for Its Navigation

A translation of the Italian royal decree declaring a blockade of the Adriatic is contained in the last issue of the Canada Gazette. It is as follows: "The blockade declared by the Royal Government on the 26th and 30th May, 1915, as extended to the whole zone of the Adriatic Sea to the north of the Orontio-Aspi-Ruga (Strade Bianchi) line.

Consequently the navigation of the Adriatic Sea to the north of this line by merchant ships of any nationality is forbidden.

The minister of marine, on the authority delegated by him, may nevertheless grant, after necessary inquiries, special safe-conducts to merchant ships desirous of proceeding to ports belonging to, or occupied by Italy or Montenegro.

Vessels desirous of entering the Adriatic must proceed to Gallipoli (Apulia) where the safe-conducts of entry must be obtained.

For leaving the Adriatic, vessels after having received permission at the port of departure must proceed to Bari, where they will be furnished with the safe-conducts of departure.

Vessels provided with safe-conducts must cross the blockade line Orontio-Aspi-Ruga (Strade Bianchi) during daylight only. They must stop on that line at a distance not greater than five miles from the Italian shore to be visited by the men-of-war destined for that purpose.

Vessels contravening the rules laid down in the preceding articles will be considered guilty of violation of the blockade, and are liable to capture and confiscation, together with their cargo, according to the regulations in force.

LIFE-SAVERS UNABLE TO GIVE ASSISTANCE

Aberdeen, Sept. 7.—The position of the schooner Louisa which went ashore in the breakers near the north jetty at the entrance of Grays harbor in a fog Friday night remains unchanged. Every swell is breaking over the vessel. While she is still about it seems only the question of a few hours before she will be pounding in the surf. The crew is still aboard and owing to the heavy breakers the life saving crew from Westport has been unable to reach her.

All hopes of saving the Louisa have been practically given up. The tug Daring which with others has been trying for two days to get a line aboard the vessel was unable to get within a mile of her today. A heavy fog which has hung over the coast for several days broke up somewhat yesterday but the surf was still running high.

The Louisa is twenty-nine days from Honolulu and expected to load here for the return trip.

NEW PIER WILL BE BUILT AT CRISTOBAL

The engineer of docks has been directed to prepare estimates of the cost of constructing an additional 1,000-foot pier at Cristobal, tentatively designated as No. 6, on the site to the northward of Pier 7, toward the sea end of the mole from which Piers 7 and 8 extend. Such a pier would be an addition in the series now comprising Nos. 2, 3 and 7, in order, and would harmonize with them in layout and construction. In connection with this work, the engineer of docks is also to prepare estimates of the cost of replacing the timber Pier 11 and its extension, adjoining the east end of Pier 10, with reinforced concrete construction of the type used in the new piers. These investigations, looking toward extension of the docking facilities at the Atlantic entrance, have been undertaken as a result of the present congestion of transfer cargo on the piers of the terminal, and the prospects of increasing traffic—Canal Record.

SHIFT WIRELESS PLANT.

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 7.—The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce has guaranteed the cost of a site of five acres for a government wireless station, to be moved from Cape Blanco to Coos Bay, and the government has been asked to send an inspector to inspect the plot. The site is on the isthmus inlet, four miles from the coast. The location is convenient to electric power and telephone lines, and is near the county highway connecting Marshfield and Coquille. The site will cost the citizens of Marshfield $750 and will be donated to the navy department.

PASSENGER BOATS BUMP

While proceeding out of the Vancouver Narrows, bound for Victoria, the C. P. R. steamer Charnier and the G. T. P. ferry Prince Rupert had a minor collision near the entrance. The vessels were close together traveling the same route. It is alleged that the G. T. P. vessel was struck by a sharp eddy, swinging her stern around, and that the Charnier struck her a glancing blow. Neither vessel was seriously damaged; a part of the Charnier's guard along her side was torn off and a plate of the Rupert was slightly crumpled.

COLLISION AT HALIFAX.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 7.—Three lives were lost in a collision which took place late last night in Halifax harbor between a local tug and a boat belonging to a warship in port. The naval boat was sunk but a number of those on board were rescued by the crew of the tug. The bodies have not been found.

Prince Rupert is the premier fishing centre on the Pacific coast of the continent. Recent statistics show that more than 2,000,000 pounds of halibut came into the port during the month of August. Business is growing steadily and Prince Rupert will far surpass other fishery ports in the near future.

The total salmon pack was far greater than the halibut catch, totalling 12,995,700; 14,000 pounds of cod was caught, 1,000 pounds of flounders, and 400 pounds of crabs. The total amount of fish brought into the port of Prince Rupert for the month of August was better than 15,913,100 pounds.

FINAL RACE MEET OF THE SEASON DRAWS BIG CROWD TO WILLOWS TRACK

Victoria Matinee Club Put on Splendid Programme of Harness and Running Events; Blanket Finishes Provide Excitement

Nearly three thousand racing enthusiasts witnessed yesterday's holiday meet at the Willows track, the programme providing some of the finest harness and running events that have ever been witnessed in the capital. Perfect weather and an exceptionally fast track combined to make the meet a record breaker and as a result the Victoria Matinee club will be able to turn into the coffers of the local Red Cross a nice little sum realized from the race meet. It was the final card of the season for the local club and winds up a very highly successful year. The club is to be congratulated upon its efforts in boosting the harness game in the capital while the worthiness of the cause found thousands of supporters throughout the city, as the attendance at the various meets showed.

Every contest was a real race, the spectators climbing on to the seats in their excitement as the different races were run off. E. Henderson's speedy mare, Satala, won the feature event, the five-eighths dash, from Toby and Ellen Terry, the race being a battle right to the wire. Satala did not come through until the stretch when the Henderson entry fairly ate up the ground in getting home in front. Another stirring running event was the pony race for ponies 14.2 and under. H. Henderson's "Queen" was the winner, though Indian Maid, Teddy McAvoy's crack little jumper was a binger second. Miss Gouge gave Roxie a wonderful ride after being pocketed at the start and landed a good third. J. McCleave's unbeatable Shetland pony, January, with Dorothy Oxley in the saddle, again showed his heels to a class field. This little animal and his rider have not been beaten this year. Gladys Gouge won a grand race in the half mile thoroughbred event. Surprises were uncovered in the trotting and pacing events. San Lucas Maid won the class A event, Minnie M. straining a tendon while warming up. Ella Erickson was second to the Sooke mare in the two heats run off. May Putnam and Zoe W., the Duncan entry, had a battle for the class B contest, the former taking the odd heat in three. Myrtle Mac took the open trot in three straight heats from Billy McIlroy's Benny. Macfoster, Herb Fullerton's green pacer, won the class C race in commanding fashion, covering a mile in 2:19 1/2, and winning two straight heats.

Too much praise cannot be given the officials in charge of the meet and especially H. M. Fullerton, the highly efficient starter. Mr. Fullerton handled the different fields like a grand circuit performer and there wasn't a bad break in the whole card. It was a treat to those who appreciate the difficulties of handling a lot of green horses and amateur drivers, the usually some delays being absolutely done away with. The results:

"A" class pace, San Lucas Maid, J. Foster, owner; J. Millington, driver; won in two straight heats, Ella Erickson (Jennings), being second in each heat. "B" class pace—First heat, J. Wolfenden's May Putnam, J. Millington, driver; 1; Rennie & Taylor's Al B. W. Rennie, driver; 2; J. McKenzie's Zoe W. W. Symons, driver; 3. Second heat, Zoe W. 1; Al B. 2; May Putnam, 3. Third heat—May Putnam, 1; Al B., 2; Zoe W., 3.

Shetland pony race, quarter mile—J. McCleave's January, J. Kirkpatrick's Brown Prince, 2.

Pony race, three-eighths mile, 14.2 and under—E. Henderson's Queen, 1; E. McEvoy's Indian Maid, 2; Joe Bailey's Roxie, 3.

Cowichan batters, the bowling of Ismay, Sparks and Vaughan being very effective.

Garrison defeated the Fox C's in a close game on the Work Point grounds, in a low scoring game, 132 to 104, while the Civics put over a surprise and defeated the Civil Service 122 to 94. The bowlers proved too strong in both of the league matches on Saturday, Garrison's victory just about clinching the local championship for the Soldiers.

Lieut. Marshall, of the 88th, scored 50 against the Victoria eleven on Saturday. In an exhibition match, the Fusiliers going down to defeat, Mitchell led the Victoria batters with 66.

HEAVY SCORING FEATURED MATCH

E. P. Ward Registers Century in Verrall Benefit; Garrison Increases Their Lead

Saturday's Cricket.
Orr's Victoria's, 235; Cowichan, 411. Victoria, 201; Officers 88th, 115. Civic Association, 122; Civil Service, 94.
Garrison, 132; Five C's, 104. Albion, 110; Navy, 124.

Holiday Results.
Albion, 360; Victoria, 210.
E. P. Ward scored a century in yesterday's benefit match on the Hospital grounds, in the Victoria-Albion match, the Albion leader being in exceptional form and topping a list of very fine scores on the holiday. The heavy scoring all round was a surprise, as the teams were evenly matched, Ward's century including twelve fours and a six. It was one of the finest bat wicketing performances of the year. Orr registered 77 before he was retired, scoring very fast. The proceeds of the game will be handed over to Verrall, the Victoria club pro, as a reward for his season's work in keeping the Hospital grounds in shape all season.

Heavy scoring also marked Saturday's Red Cross match at Duncan, when the picked team of H. B. Orr defeated the Cowichan cricketers 235 to 111. Waltham and Vaughan, with 55 and 41, respectively, were the leading run-getters, though Ward and Hudson also got above the twenty mark. Carr Hilton, with 27, was the pick of the

NORWEGIAN GIRL DEFEATED YESTERDAY

New York, Sept. 7.—Mrs. George W. Wightman, of the Longwood club, Boston, defeated Miss Mollie Bjurstedt, the national lawn tennis champion, yesterday in the final of the women's cup tournament on the courts of the Rockaway Hunting Club, Cedarhurst, L. I. The score was 6-1, 6-4.

Mrs. Wightman, formerly Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, of California, played with her old, hard-hitting drives. She hammered away at the backhand of her famous adversary, always outplaying her in the rallies. Miss Bjurstedt's attack at the net was not as successful as usual for as spirited.

It was the second time Miss Bjurstedt had been beaten in a cup match this season.

Mrs. Wightman was the finalist against the Norwegian girl for the national championship, which she lost in three sets.

THUNDERER WON.
Belmont, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Thunderer won the rich Futurity race here to-day. Romo was second and Achievement third. Time, 1:11 1/4.

SEATTLE CREEPING UP ON SPOKANE

Indians Shift Schedule for This Week; Jimmy Clark Joins the Giants

By winning a double-header yesterday while Spokane club was breaking even with Tacoma, Seattle reduced the lead of the Indians to a fraction over one and one-half games. Satisfied with the way the games turned out, Dugdale withdrew his protest of the two games, and Vancouver will remain in Seattle all week, while the Indians are entertaining Tacoma.

Without the knowledge or consent of President Robert L. Blewett, of the Northwestern Baseball league, or President Dugdale, of Seattle, a job has been put through by Spokane, Tacoma and Vancouver which beats any other doubtful transaction ever before recorded in the annals of this rickety old league. Briefly put, the "combine" yanked the Spokane club out of Seattle Sunday night and sent them home in time to open on their home grounds with the Tacoma Tigers. As a second part of the job Vancouver was shifted to Seattle for the two games this afternoon.

This juggling of the schedule deprives Seattle of the chance of meeting Spokane, games that the leaders evidently desired to avoid, and places them on their home grounds for at least twelve games. President Dugdale has no idea that the Indians even intend to return for the four games scheduled here September 16, 17, 18 and 19.

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 5.—Des Moines won the Western League championship by defeating Sioux City in the second game of a double-header here to-day, 3 to 0. Des Moines led the first contest after a ten-inning struggle, 6 to 5. The new champions have headed the league since the middle of last June, with the exception of one day in August, when Denver held first place.

Spokane, Sept. 7.—Spokane and Tacoma broken even in a double-header yesterday. The Tigers took the first game, 5 to 2, by hitting Wicker effectively, while Melike held the Indians safe in the pinches. Levine's homer, with two on the bases, in the fifth, was a feature.

Spokane won the second game, 4 to 2, by bunting hits off Kaufman. Keefe was hit hard at times, and was saved a beating by sensational fielding behind him. Sheely figured in all the run-getting for Spokane in the second contest, driving in three runs and scoring once himself. Catches by Neighbors and Kaylor were features.

Seattle took two games from Vancouver yesterday, the scores being 5 to 0 in both contests. Jimmy Clark, Seattle's new twirler, pitched one of the games.

LOCAL RINKS WON FROM VANCOUVER

Yates Big Lead Gave Victorians a Narrow Win; Roberts Holds Clayton Cup

Vancouver, Sept. 7.—Victoria lawn bowlers again proved their superiority over Vancouver participants in the popular pastime when they won by eight points in a closely-contested match on Saturday afternoon, the final score reading 56 to 48. When the Vancouver bowlers visited the capital city recently they were beaten by six points.

Only in one rink of the three were the locals able to top the score, that being accomplished by the rink skipped by Chambers, who bowled a splendid game at all stages. An outstanding feature of the afternoon's play was the splendid work of Skip Stevenson, of the winning aggregation, who supplied some clever drawing shots when they were most needed.

The visiting team was pleasantly entertained by the Vancouver club. In the morning they were motored around Marine Drive and to the beauty spots of the city. They were then entertained at luncheon, and following the match, dinner was served to both teams in the clubhouse. The following are players and scores of the three rinks:

Victoria	Vancouver
Sturgess	Alexander, Jr.
Fraser	Cuthbertson
Walker	Seaton
Chambers, skip-19	Chambers, skip-21
Victoria	Vancouver
Alexander	Barrie
Abbey	Grey
Barber	Saunders
Stevenson, skip-17	Meston, skip-15
Victoria	Vancouver
Dowdell	Young
Roberts	Bowman
Young	Menzies
Yates, skip-20	Howat, skip-12
Total: Victoria, 56; Vancouver, 48.

The contest for the Clayton cup was brought to a close when Roberts defeated Chambers in the finals, thus

PETER SCOTT WAS AN EASY WINNER

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 7.—The thirtieth renewal of the Charter stake, the feature of the Grand Circuit meeting here each year, this time for 2,088 trotters and a purse of $5,000, one half the amount of previous years, was the tamest race in the history of this class of the trotting turf.

Peter Scott, Murphy's bay stallion, was an easy first in straight heats, having no contenders in the small field of four horses that started the race. Of twelve horses eligible, eight were scratched, among them Lee Axworthy, which has been in poor shape since last week's race at the New York meeting. Greers drove Bonnington and his ability to keep him in his stride in the first two heats caused Murphy to go after the final heat in the fastest time of the race, 2:07 1/2, which ended in a break by Bonnington that cost him an opportunity for second money. McDonald had trouble with Margot Hal in the second heat of the 2:08 pace, after winning the first in comparatively easy fashion, and the bay mare ran the last three-eighths of a mile, being distanced for running. After that Queen Abbess had everything her way, winning the next three heats with John R. Hal a close second.

WILLIAMS BEATEN BY 'FRISCO STAR

Greatest Surprise of Tennis Year Eliminates Champion; Finals to Be Played To-day

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 7.—The national lawn tennis championship in singles for 1915 will go to a California player to-day unless the local weather man intervenes. Two of the famous native son players won the right on the courts of the West Side club here yesterday afternoon to meet in the final round of the thirty-fifth annual tournament of the national association by eliminating the only two eastern experts left in the tournament, which began a week ago. William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, eliminated R. Morris Williams, II., of Philadelphia, in a sensational five-set match, 5-7, 6-4, 5-7, 6-2, 6-2, while Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, who already holds two legs of the all-comers challenge bowl, put out T. R. Fell, of New York, at 6-2, 6-0, 7-5.

McLoughlin's victory was generally predicted by the tennis experts, for the famous Davis cup player has outranked his opponent for several years. Johnston's defeat of Williams was far more sensational and unexpected, and proved to be the biggest upset in a national tournament for several seasons. The young Californian, who was placed sixth in the 1914 ranking, while Williams, who was No. 2, won his victory over the present titleholder by superior play and generosity and without the semblance of a fluke.

In the grueling five-set match, witnessed by a holiday gallery which filled every portion of the grandstands and club-house veranda, Johnston outpaced and outplayed the famous foreign-coached champion, while his errors were a trifle less than those made by Williams.

A stroke analysis for the entire match shows seven service aces for Johnston, as against five for Williams. In placement shots the California made fifty to Williams' forty-two. The victor drove out of court fifty-nine times to the loser's fifty, but retrieved himself by holding his netted balls to forty, against Williams' forty-six. The latter also was guilty of twelve double faults, as against Johnston's five.

Vernon, B. C., Sept. 7.—Johnny O'Leary and Hector McDonald, of the 11th C. M. R., fought ten rounds in one of the fastest boxing bouts ever pulled off in Vernon.

HUNDREDS ATTEND RED CROSS CONCERT

Open-Air Speeches and Music on Saturday Attract Big Audience

The illumination of the parliament buildings acted as a beacon on Saturday night, and hundreds of citizens and visitors gathered on the lawns to enjoy the open-air concert arranged by the Victoria and District Branch of the Red Cross society in aid of their fund. The chairman of the Victoria branch presided, the central entrance to the buildings being used as a stage where W. Ross Sutherland was seated with Rt. Rev. Bishop MacDonald and Rev. J. Gibson Inkster beside him.

The 5th Regiment band, R.C.G.A., by courtesy of the officers of that regiment, provided the greater part of the musical programme, occupying the broad area just in front of the central steps. The programme opened and concluded with patriotic numbers rendered with spirit and musically executed, all the selections being heartily applauded by the multitude which thronged the square in front of the buildings.

The addresses were brief, but eloquent. Mr. Inkster was introduced by Mr. Sutherland, and paid a high tribute to the manner in which the Canadian soldier was bearing his part on the battlefield of the empire. Their prowess and bravery needed no further herald. Their noble achievements would go down in history. Those at home had their part to play; they must contribute their share to the empire's defence; they must help forward the Red Cross work or other patriotic enterprise which would assist the soldiers who were wounded in the great struggle now being made for the freedom of the world. In England they were considering conscription. Compulsory service would never be needed in Canada, however, as every man who was fit to bear arms for his country would do so.

The Bishop of Victoria emphasized the responsibility which lay on those who were left at home while their brothers went forward to fight for the allies. The destiny of the empire was at stake. No effort in behalf of the wounded soldiers could be too great. The Red Cross society needed strong support. Greater love had no man than that which meant the giving up of his life. Those who had gone under arms to the battlefields of Europe were purchasing with their very life blood right and liberty for the generations to come. Their heroism could not be measured in words.

The final appeal was made by Ross Sutherland, chairman of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society, who pointed out the difficulty which confronted the organization. There were numbers of volunteer workers who had given unsparingly of their time to the preparation of Red Cross supplies. But they had to have materials. At present the funds were barely sufficient to keep the workers supplied with this very necessary equipment. In view of the essential purpose for which the society was organized there was reason to expect ready response in money and materials, and it was lamentable that the Victoria branch had held a leading place among the cities of Canada in respect to donations to the fund, was slipping back. The pressure was great; the citizens must rise to the need, and continue to give even more liberally than in the past.

During the evening patriotic songs were given by a number of local artists. The song "Canada for Empire," composed by Mrs. Conyers Bridge, water and Mrs. Fred Lewis, was sung by H. Davis, and was given a splendid reception. Mrs. Bridgewater accompanied her own composition. The Russian National Anthem was another vocal feature, this being given in the form of a trio by Messrs. H. J. Davis, E. Petch, and R. Macaulay, who gave an appealing version of "The Marseillaise" before the programme concluded. J. G. Brown was also heartily cheered after his rendering of a Scottish song that appealed greatly to the patriotic sentiments of his audience. Mrs. R. H. Pooley contributed in her best form "Land of Hope and Glory."

At the Empress Hotel ballroom, kindly thrown open for the occasion, by Mr. Jackson, the manager, the visiting bankers who left the following day to attend the convention at Seattle were entertained with a musical programme provided by Mrs. R. H. Pooley and H. J. Davis, dancing taking place later. Sir Richard McBride, who was to have addressed the visitors, was unable to be present.

Collections during the evening at the two places were carried out by a number of nurses and volunteer helpers, the total realized being $150.

FRIENDLY HELP MEETS
Conditions More Encouraging, Reports Show; Contributions Gratefully Acknowledged.

Much more encouraging were the reports given by the secretary, visitors and other workers at the regular monthly meeting of the Friendly Help Society this morning. Twelve members were present. The number of necessitous families had considerably decreased during the past few weeks, it was reported, many of the men having gone to the harvesting fields, while others had gone to England on some service connected with the army or munitions manufacture, many being joined by their wives. Others, again, had found work locally, and in some instances had returned money given to them by the association.

Great appreciation was expressed to those who had brought vegetables to the Friendly Help rooms during the month, particularly Mr. Ker and Mrs. Pemberton. Twenty-seven families had been helped many times each with these supplies.

The following donations received during August were acknowledged with thanks:

Cash from the city, a friend, a mansion friend, baby's aid, a friend; J. D. Virtue, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farrell, a Vernon friend, J. H. Todd & Son, Mrs. MacRae, Miss Murray, Sooke, Holly-wood Grocery, Mrs. Thoburn, Mrs. Turnbull, Painter & Sons, Deaville & Sons.

Ker, Mrs. Fred Pemberton and the stall-holders in the market.

Provisions from the Reformed Church, apples from Mr. Beale, plums and sack of sugar from Mrs. R. F. Green; potatoes from Mrs. Scriven; jam from Mrs. Hollingdale and Miss McAllister; books from Mrs. McEwen.

LOCAL NEWS

Hebrew New Year.—The Hebrew New Year, A. M. 5676, will be ushered in by Victoria members of the faith at services in the synagogue, Bligh and Pandora avenues, at 8 p. m., on Wednesday and 9 a. m. on Thursday.

British Mail In.—A British mail was received at the post office yesterday afternoon, by way of New York and Seattle, which left London on August 25. There were twelve sacks of letters and fifteen sacks of papers.

Calls of Fire.—The fire department yesterday responded to fire calls in a heap of rubbish adjoining the Hafer Machine works on Store street, and to a grass fire on Newport avenue, Oak Bay.

Navy League Chapter.—There will be an important business meeting of Navy League chapter, I. O. E. in the Temple buildings, at 3 p. m., on Thursday, which all members are requested to attend.

New Pastor Preaches.—Large congregations in First Congregational church on Sunday heard Rev. C. A. Sykes, the new pastor of the church. Mr. Sykes is a forceful and a thoughtful speaker, with a pleasing style, and his morning and evening sermons made a deep impression upon his hearers.

W. C. T. U. Home.—The annual general meeting of the W. C. T. U. home for women, Ida and Pembroke streets, will be held on Tuesday, September 14, from 3 to 6 p. m. Any gifts, whether for the provision of the larder or for the furnishing of the home, will be acceptable, and it is hoped that old and new patrons will give their help.

Earthquake Recorded.—The seismological instrument at the Gonzales observatory yesterday recorded an earthquake. This occurred at 5:24 p. m., the surface wave coming eighteen minutes after the first wave, and causing a vibration of three-eighths of an inch. The vibration lasted for two hours. The centre of the disturbance, Mr. Denison estimates, was about 2,500 miles distant from Victoria, and probably in the direction of Central America or the Aleutian Islands.

Presentation to Secretary.—Members of the House of Commons, operating under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance association, last Friday night made a presentation to Mrs. W. Wallace Grime (nee Miss Sadie Munro), class secretary. This took the form of a secretary's reticule, a leather case fitted up with neat pockets for papers, etc. Accompanying the gift was a pretty bouquet of pink carnations, the class gift being accompanied with an expression of appreciation of Mrs. Grime's work in connection with the St. John Ambulance home nursing and other classes.

Shawinigan Women's Institute.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Shawinigan Women's Institute, at the S. L. A. hall, Shawinigan Lake, great satisfaction was expressed at the result of the concert organized in aid of the Red Cross funds by Mr. and Mrs. MacGowan, the sum cleared being over $50. It was also announced that the members of the recreation committee had undertaken to collect the sum of $5 a month for the adoption of a prisoner of war and to supply a weekly parcel of food through the Prisoners' Aid society's headquarters in London. The matter of preparing the Malahat school grounds so that parts of it might serve the children as school gardens was left to a sub-committee, which was appointed to co-operate with the school trustees in taking the necessary steps.

Fifth Regiment Band.—The Sunday evening concert series of the Fifth Regiment band re-commenced this week at the Royal-Victoria theatre, a big audience being present on the initial night. "O Canada," arranged as an overture, was given by the band as its opening number, and one of the most popular numbers of the evening was "Swanee River," given by the band with unusual color and spirit. The soloists were the recipients of spontaneous encores, Gnr. Scriver proving particularly popular. His rendering of "My Dream" was the most favored number of the evening. Miss Barker sang Noel Johnson's two songs, "The Rose," and "The River and the Sea," and was encored, and Corporal Willis was recalled after his clarinet solo. Miss Turist acted very ably as accompanist, and W. J. Smith, the bandmaster, had to acknowledge at the close of the evening the appreciative plaudits of the audience.

CITY TAX CASE TO BE HEARD NEXT MONDAY

Application in Chambers; Mr. Justice Gregory to Call Another Judge In

Mention was made in supreme court chambers this morning to Mr. Justice Gregory of the application by A. T. Luxton, K. C., for R. T. Elliott and McPherson and "Fullerton Brothers and other property owners, to have the city tax by-law quashed. The matter did not go on because Mr. Luxton asked and received an adjournment for one week and because Mr. Justice Gregory did not feel inclined to hear an application of the nature, he being a property owner and therefore interested.

His lordship said when the matter was mentioned that if the result of the application by Mr. Luxton, if successful, would be to quash the by-law and mean a new assessment for the whole city, he doubted if he would care to hear it. "I have some assessments I would be very glad to get rid of," his lordship remarked. He suggested that a brother judge from Vancouver be asked to come here to take the case, and on the agreement of the solicitors and because of Mr. Luxton's desire to examine a witness beforehand it was agreed Monday should be the day for argument.

PRINCIPAL WILLIS WILL REMAIN HERE

Change to Be Limited to Two Members of Staff; Formal Approval To-night

The arrangement which has been eventually reached with regard to the transfer of the staff of the former McGill college here to the University of British Columbia will provide for the engagement of E. Howard Russell and F. G. C. Wood.

Principal Willis, of the city High school, who was also invited to join the staff, has definitely declined the invitation, and will remain at his present post, much to the satisfaction of local educationalists, and an ever-growing circle of men and women who have received their training under him. Commenting on Mr. Willis' decision a prominent local educationalist said today: "We may regard it as a little spiritless act, as I believe Mr. Willis is actuated by a desire to maintain the High school standard. He received an excellent offer, and would have had a less strenuous year than his present duties call for."

The formal approval of the appointment of Messrs. Russell and Wood to the university staff will be made at a meeting of the governors, to be held at Vancouver this evening. The meeting was timed for last evening, but on account of the holiday the gathering was postponed 24 hours. It is not expected there will be the slightest objection raised to the appointments of the members of the Victoria staff. Mr. Russell has been with the board since 1892, and Mr. Wood since 1910.

This decision may be said to close an interesting chapter in the educational life of the province, the McGill college work having ceased with the transfer to the university.

BIG SLASHING FIRE
E. H. Marcotte Sets Fire to 25 Acres of Timber and Brush; Glow Seen in This City.

Last evening many residents of this city saw the lurid glow of what was believed to be another big bush fire in Saanich. Inquiries made this morning revealed the fact that it was only a clearing fire on the premises of E. H. Marcotte, at Keatings. He had slashed 25 acres of timber and brush, and after building a back trench to prevent the fire from jumping, received permission from the Saanich authorities to ignite the debris.

LIBERAL MEETING
Matters of Importance to Be Discussed at Gathering To-morrow.

A mass meeting of Liberals is to be held at the rooms in the June block, Cormorant street, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Several matters of importance will be brought up at this meeting for discussion, and for this reason it is desired that there should be a large attendance of Liberals.

H. C. Brewster, and the other city candidates and other speakers will address the meeting.

OBITUARY RECORD

The death occurred yesterday of John Edward Gray, who passed away at his residence, 2826 Blackwood street. The deceased, who was 66 years of age, was a native of London, England, and had lived in Victoria for the past seven years. Besides his widow he is survived by four sons: George, Percy, Lawrence, and Cecil, all of Victoria; and three daughters: Mrs. H. Grist, of Gordon Head; Mrs. W. Tippet, of Gordon Head; and one daughter in England. The funeral service, which will be private, will be held at the family residence to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The arrangements are with the Thomson Funeral company.

ISLAND INSTITUTES MEET IN CONVENTION

Interesting Papers, Open Way for Discussing To-morrow's Programme

The convention of the Island Women's Institutes opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Parliament buildings, the chairman being Miss Alice Ravenhill, of Shawanigan Lake, a member of the Advisory board. The session's greetings of the government were extended to the delegates by the superintendent of institutes, W. E. Scott, and during the afternoon Mrs. J. C. Kemp, of Vancouver, president of the B. C. Consumers' league, was programmed to give a paper on "Co-operation." Mrs. Hannington's paper on "Study Courses for Women's Institutes" will be read in the afternoon.

This evening there will be a reception to the delegates by the Victoria Branch Red Cross Society, Temple block.

To-morrow's session will open at 9 a. m., and during the morning Miss Ravenhill will read a paper on Eugenics. Dr. Wasson will also give a paper, and in the afternoon there will be a discussion on the paper by Miss Ad Mackenzie, of the Victoria Order of Nurses, who is at present visiting in the city. Mrs. Graves will treat with "Recitations for Young People in Rural Districts." There will be a meeting of the delegates at the Y. W. C. A. at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The following manufacturers' concerns are represented at the session which opened this afternoon:

At the home of the bride's parents, 632 Manchester road, the marriage was celebrated on Saturday afternoon of Agnes C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKeehan, and William Augustus King, of Nottingham, Eng. Rev. J. G. Inkster officiated. The bride wore a becoming robe of voile and lace, and a veil embroidered with true lovers' knots and fastened in place with a chaplet of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of white roses and carnations. Later a dainty repast was served, and Mr. and Mrs. King left on a motor trip round the island.

A pretty wedding took place on Saturday evening at 1646 Fell street when Rev. Dr. Campbell celebrated the nuptials of Mrs. Jean Marshall, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hay, of Aberdeen, Scotland, and John David Drever, a native of Orkney, Scotland, and eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Drever. The bridegroom was supported by Joseph MacKay. The bride looked handsome in a costume of cream cashmere, and was attended by Miss Cecilia Robertson, who, as bridesmaid, wore a pretty frock of white crepe de chine. After the ceremony the company sat down to a daintily-served repast. Both the principals were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. After a honeymoon at Brentwood Mr. and Mrs. Drever will make their home in Victoria.

Pte. A. J. Cox and Pte. M. C. Rutherford Killed; Pte. N. Christy Wounded

Two more Victorians have been killed at the front and one has sustained serious injuries. The casualty list published yesterday contained the news of Pte. Maurice C. Rutherford's death and the wounding of Pte. Frank Christy, and private advices received by the parents last night told of the death of Pte. A. J. Cox.

The three soldiers left Victoria with the 36th Battalion and were transferred to the 7th Battalion, which of late has been in some heavy fighting.

William H. Cox, of 187 Joseph street, was informed last night that his son, Private A. J. Cox, had been killed in action in Flanders. The deceased was 19 years of age. He was born in Victoria and was educated at the Central school. He is survived by a father, mother, five brothers and two sisters. Private Cox was very well known in the city and the sad news of his death will be a shock to his wide circle of friends.

Pte. Rutherford was 28 years of age and was a native of England. He came here from Kamloops four years ago, and for a time was studying law under C. B. S. Phelan. Prior to enlisting he was articled to Alan Dumbleton. He leaves a wife and daughter in England and a sister, Mrs. Durrant, of Quadra street. Rutherford was well known in this city.

Pte. Frank Christy has been seriously wounded and removed from the fighting line to a hospital, where he is doing well.

Mid-week Market. — To-morrow's market is being anticipated as a great success by the stall-holders, who will be in with a large variety of produce and hope the public patronage will come close to Saturday's attendance.

Stall-holders intend to bring only the best of fruits, vegetables, dining produce, meats, fish, etc., at rock bottom prices.

PITCHFORK STABBING CHARGE IS REMANDED

Corporal Rogers Still Confined to Hospital; Walsh Will Appear Again To-morrow

Owing to the fact that Corporal Rogers is still confined to the Royal Jubilee hospital, the charge against Ernest Walsh of assaulting him and doing bodily harm could not be proceeded with in the police court this morning, and "Magistrate Jay granted a remand until to-morrow morning. Rogers, however, may not be able to leave the hospital for a day or two, as the attending physician is afraid of tetanus, in which case a further remand will in all probability be asked for.

The remanding of the Walsh case until to-morrow causes two of the most serious stabbing cases that have occurred in this city for some time to come up for hearing on that day. James Brennan will be called "once again on a charge of assaulting George Addison with intent to do bodily harm. The prosecution hoped to have Addison in court to-morrow but he has not been showing the improvement expected during the past few days. He spent a poor night last night, and Dr. McKimick said this morning that his condition could be considered serious.

So far the Brennan case has been remanded six times. One witness on behalf of the prosecution has been heard. In stabbing Addison, Brennan used a long bladed pocket knife, and drove the keen blade five inches into the plaintiff, causing terrible injuries. The allegation which resulted in Walsh stabbing Rogers with a pitchfork, arose over domestic troubles. The soldier, who is a married man, is a member of the 88th regiment and has been stationed at Bandford for some time. He returned home on leave last week and on Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock went to Walsh Bros' stables on Hillside avenue. A discussion arose, and after a scuffle Walsh jabbed Rogers with a pitchfork. Fortunately the soldier had his hand over his stomach and the direction of the thrust was somewhat deflected. Nevertheless several flesh wounds were inflicted, and Dr. McKimick ordered Rogers to the hospital. W. H. Bullock-Webster is acting for Walsh.

At wedding of interest here took place recently at the Seventh Day Adventist church, Grandview, Vancouver, when Violet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Freeman, of Victoria, and Martin S. McDougall, also of this city, were united in marriage by pastor A. O. Burrill. Mr. and Mrs. McDougall, who are now on their honeymoon, will make their future home in Victoria.

At the home of the bride's parents, 632 Manchester road, the marriage was celebrated on Saturday afternoon of Agnes C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKeehan, and William Augustus King, of Nottingham, Eng. Rev. J. G. Inkster officiated. The bride wore a becoming robe of voile and lace, and a veil embroidered with true lovers' knots and fastened in place with a chaplet of orange blossoms. A PROFITABLE ECONOMY

The Pullman Davenport adds an extra bedroom without additional rent. Day and night it plays its important part. No trace of the bed can be seen when the Davenport is closed; all that you see is a big, luxuriously upholstered Davenport, tempting you to enjoy the proverbial forty winks. When opened up for night service, you have a full sized bed that is equally as comfortable, rigid and sightly as a regular bed can be.

Requires very little effort to operate it, and costs very little more than its predecessor—the old-fashioned bed lounge. Come in and see for yourself. Seeing is believing.

GOES TO TORONTO TO AVIATION SCHOOL

J. B. Daniell Joining Royal Air Service; Prince George Recruits for Western Scots

After seven years spent in the publication of newspapers in the northern interior of this province, J. B. Daniell, editor of the Prince George Post, arrived in the city last week to offer himself to the naval authorities of Esquimalt as a candidate for the Royal Naval Air Service.

To pass the rigid physical examination at the dock yard Mr. Daniell had to undergo a minor operation at the Jubilee hospital, and he was accepted as a candidate on Saturday after being discharged from the Jubilee. From here Mr. Daniell will proceed to Prince George to settle up affairs in connection with his publication, and will then go to Toronto to take the course of instruction at the Curtiss school. After obtaining a pilot's license from the Aero Club of America, for which the Curtiss school course is necessary, he will proceed to England, in conformity with the established practice of the flying service, to take an advanced course at the central flying school, from which flying men are drafted into active service.

Mr. Daniell is an old Victoria boy. He is the son of Chas. B. Daniell, police magistrate of Prince George, whom with Mrs. Daniell, a well-known artist, were for ten years residents of this city.

Since 1908 J. B. Daniell has established three papers in the Cariboo country. These are the Cariboo Observer, the Fort George Herald, and the Prince George Post.

Prince George has contributed a large percentage of population to the great cause beyond the waters. Already two heavy drafts of men from there are in training at Vernon and another one hundred men, under Lieut. W. F. Cooke, a prominent lumberman and merchant of that city, are to join the Western Scots.

A machine gun is being given by Charles Millar, of Toronto, a well-known millionaire, who is providing this gun on the understanding that Lieut. Cooke shall handle it. Mr. Millar owns a large addition to the Prince George townsite. He is also largely responsible for Mr. Daniell's departure from journalism, as he has offered to finance the northern editor through the schools at Toronto. In his letter announcing the gift of the machine gun Mr. Millar wrote: "I'll give a gun, for Bill Cooke to run."

The promotion is announced in the London Gazette of Major E. C. Pottinger, Royal Field Artillery, to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Lt.-Col. Pottinger is well known here and on the lower mainland, where he farmed in the Fraser valley for some years. He left for England with his wife and daughter in October last. His son went from here with the 50th Battalion, and later was given a commission in the Royal Artillery. Lt.-Col. Pottinger is a brother-in-law of Brigadier-General E. A. E. Hobday, Duncan.

The recruits who have been taken on by Lieut. W. F. Cooke at Prince George for his company of the 47th Western Scots are expected to leave that city to-night for Victoria to join the regiment. They have been drilling every evening for an hour and are reported by the Prince George papers to be in excellent form. Men have come in from many points in the north, and on the way down here by way of Prince Rupert others will be taken on if they have medical certificates of fitness.

A meeting of citizens of Nanaimo is to be held this evening in the city hall under the chairmanship of Mayor Planta, the purpose being the organization of a company of volunteer reserves in that city. The new company is being organized with the approval of the militia authorities, and will afford a home guard the existence of which will release every eligible man for active service. It is, however, non-official and will be unconnected with any unit, although the authorities will give some help at the outset in the matter of drill. There is to be no restriction upon those wishing to join, whether in regard to physical condition, age or otherwise, except that the minimum age limit is fixed at seventeen.

The following men compose the second draft of the miners' company raised in and about Nanaimo who are to be sent to the Vernon camp as soon as word arrives:

Thomas Pickup, L. F. Mottishaw, David Thomas, H. B. Martin, Chas. Webster, Joseph Sampson, Joseph Fielding, Leonard Ramsell, W. A. Yeo, William Waltho, H. J. Sanford, J. A. McAllister, Henry Mason, Harry Brown, R. G. Fielding, J. C. Piper, Frank Bateman, G. H. Brown, Joseph Rayson, Robert McCourt, Frank MacDonald, Lachlan McMillan, C. R. H. Burgess, Arthur Morton, W. G. Brice, F. J. Fielding, Walter Parkin, H. W. Butler, James Anderson, W. J. Willis, A. E. Lightfoot, D. L. Williams, J. J. Evans, William Fletcher, John Glen, E. Dickinson, Thomas Hughes, W. G. Randall, J. H. Greig, E. A. Neave, Harold Wotten, L. E. Priestley, transferred to 72nd, H. T. M. Bryant, transferred to 104th.

There are several items of local interest in the latest militia general orders published in the current number of the Canada Gazette. The following appointments in the regiments named are gazetted:

30th Regiment, British Columbia Horse—Quartermaster-Sergeant Walter Scott, Allan and William Cornwallis Butts, to be provisional lieutenants (super-numerary).

31st Regiment, British Columbia Horse—Sergeant Richard Archie Payne and James Farnham Lewis, to be provisional lieutenants (super-numerary). Supernumerary Lieutenant H. U. Schofield is seconded.

50th Regiment, Gordon Highlanders of Canada—William Cameron Ross, to be a provisional lieutenant (super-numerary). Supernumerary Lieutenant M. M. Foote is seconded.

102nd Regiment, Rocky Mountain Rangers—Melville Percival Lane, to be a provisional lieutenant (super-numerary). Thompson Edgar Leon Taylor, to be a supernumerary lieutenant.

104th Regiment, Westminster Fusiliers of Canada—Robert Stewart Ross and Oswald Horatio Hepworth, to be provisional lieutenants (super-numerary).

107th East Kootenay Regiment—Sergeants Fred Lister, Robert John Black and James Brechin, Walter Thomas Haynes, George Thomson and Norman Egerton Suddaby, to be provisional lieutenants (super-numerary). Lieutenant G. A. B. Hall, Army Service Corps, is granted the temporary rank of captain whilst performing the duties of assistant director of medical services in Militia District No. 11.

The officers mentioned below, having qualified themselves for their appointments, are confirmed in their rank: 50th Gordon Highlanders—Supernumerary Lieutenant H. S. Edgar. 88th Regiment—Lieutenants E. L. Thompson, A. C. G. Gray; Supernumerary Lieutenants G. H. B. Mogg, T. B. Pemberton, H. F. Skelton, D. James. 102nd Regiment—Supernumerary Lieutenant L. R. Andrews. 104th Regiment—Lieutenant R. W. W. Reid, Supernumerary Lieutenant J. A. Harper.

INSPECTION OF TROOPS

H. R. H. the Governor-General to Be Here on September 17: Will Stay at Empress.

It is the wish of H. R. H. the governor-general, as has been already announced, that there shall be an absence of any public functions during his brief visit to the city next week to inspect the troops.

He is setting the example himself by staying at the Empress hotel for the night of September 16 instead of going to Government House. He has notified Lieut.-Governor Barnard to this effect, but intimates his acceptance of a dinner engagement for Government House for the evening of September 17.

The arrangements for the inspection of the local corps and expeditionary forces now in the city are in the hands of Colonel Ogilvie, D. O. C., and an opportunity will be given the public to witness it.

CHINATOWN EN FETE

Celebration by Gee Goong Tong Held Saturday Night With Procession and Entertainment.

In Chinatown Saturday night members of the Gee Goong Tong celebrated the 25th anniversary of the inauguration of the movement against the then reigning Manchu dynasty. Chinatown was lighted and decorated in the oriental manner and on the streets there was a parade in which an imitation dragon was carried to the accompaniment of a Chinese band.

There was a celebration at the Masonic headquarters, Fisguard street, Chinese in character and largely attended. An elaborate programme was given.

The progress of the imitation dragon on the streets attracted much interest from the Chinese and others. It was a grotesque object carried on the shoulders of a Chinese. It had a head something like a lion's and its antics in the procession were the cause of much mirth.

Rural Constable—"Sketching the harbor is forbidden, sir." Artist—"Oh, that's all right, I'm making a study of clouds." R. C. (impressively)—"Ah! But supposin' your picture got into the hands of the enemy's aircraft department, see the use they could make of it!" "Punch."

CALENDAR IS ISSUED

Curriculum of British Columbia University Published; Matriculation Applications Close Wednesday Week.

The first calendar containing a full list of officers and staff with details of the courses of study for the university has just been issued by Dr. F. F. Westbrook, president of the University of British Columbia. It contains full advice as to admission to the classes and of the curriculum followed.

There is besides the information for intending students, a short historical sketch, lists of the members of the board of governors, of the senate of the university, the members of convocation, of the staff and of the students of the Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning, which now ceases operations in the province but whose students are eligible to admission to the university.

The announcement is made that owing to the lateness of the calendar issue, application for matriculation and for supplementary examinations will be accepted as late as Wednesday, September 15 and those for admission to the university as late as Monday, September 20. These applications must be made on prepared forms which may be obtained from the registrar's office.

BANKERS' CONVENTION IS HELD AT SEATTLE

About 2,000 Attending; Foreign Exchange and Other Discussions

Between 1,500 and 2,000 bankers are assembled in the conference of American bankers at Seattle to-day. The conference began yesterday, those attending representing almost every state in the union. There was an executive council meeting held at which there was outlined the work for to-day.

One of the subjects to come up for discussion considered by bankers of the United States to be most important is the right of congress to confer powers upon national banks. To-day there is a discussion in the savings bank section of the convention on the need for liquidity of savings banks assets, and this morning there was read a paper on "The railroads and the people."

In the convention yesterday H. J. Dreher, Milwaukee, spoke of the future of the American banker as follows: "The day of the banker for constructive service on a large scale has arrived. The responsibilities placed upon him are almost overwhelming, but if he grasps the problem and solves them aright, he shall become one of the great leaders of our new civilization."

"Americanism in finance is a definite reality, more so to-day than ever before," he said. "Against the time, if it shall ever come, when the old empires unite to crush the spirit of Americanism and all that it shall signify as the years pass by, we must build not a nation, vigorous and strong, adhering to the highest ideals of human liberty and justice, but we must also build in this land a financial system delicately adjusted that it shall save our people from internal panic and loss and furnish an adequate agency for extending to every part of the world American inventive genius, American efficiency and American resourcefulness. The economic development of the state is to be highly intense."

Frank D. Brundage, speaking on foreign exchange, said: "Fall in the price of London exchange to the lowest level touched in forty years has excited wide public interest in efforts of Europe to liquidate its enormous indebtedness to the United States. The problem is of pressing importance for the reason that very heavy exports of war material will be made this year in the period when the outflow of foodstuffs is taking place."

The exchange operations necessary to create dollars for the payment of war material (most of which must be paid in dollars) and the offerings of bills on London drawn against exportation of foodstuffs and other merchandise, will, in the fall, reach a total unprecedented in this country's history. The inevitable consequence will be a considerable further decline in the exchange rates, unless steps are taken to offset this natural decline by importation of gold, the sale of American or foreign securities in this market, or by the establishment of large credits secured by satisfactory collateral."

Dan Nordberg, Cariboo Miner and Trader, Passes to His Rest.

Dan Nordberg, an old time Cariboo miner and trader passed away at his ranch in Chilcotin on August 30, aged 84 years. He moved to Cariboo in the first gold excitement and was engaged in mining and trading. He built the first log cabin at the mouth of the Quesset River, where the town of Quesset stands to-day. He resided for many years in Chilcotin, where he was engaged in store-keeping and stock-raising. Old Dan was known and respected by everyone in the community. The burial took place at his

BOSTON CLERGYMAN AT CHRIST CHURCH

Rev. W. A. Van Allen Gives American's Views of Great European War

Rev. W. H. Van Allen, rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston, Mass., was the preacher at the evening service at Christ Church cathedral on Sunday evening. His discourse on the subject: "An American's View of Christianity and the Great War," opened with a statement to the effect that it was three years since he had preached in a Canadian church. That was in 1912, when, at the request of Dean Schofield, he had addressed a congregation at Fredericton cathedral. Then he had urged peace. Now the British empire was in the midst of war.

He had been in England from July to October last year, explained Mr. Van Allen. It was interesting to him to see England taking her decision in August. It was a very simple decision, yet it was a problem: Would a Christian nation bound to another by her word, break that bond for material consideration or turn toward at the word of a perjurer. There were memories of bygone wrongs all over Europe. It was hard to say who was in the right. A clear, swift decision was difficult till the blood-red light shone, the burning suffering of Belgium, that monstrous and unparalleled outrage to a neighbor to whom Germany had pledged her protection.

It had been a splendid thing to see the practically unanimous response of the British nation to the call for help. The only voices against her action were those of people who professed that only they had the genuine Christianity, the pacifists who urged that under no conditions was force justifiable. This had been Tolstoy's attitude which he said that even if he saw a drunken Russian trampling a child in the street he would not prevent him by force, for force was wrong. This attitude was not Christian. "Blessed be the Lord my strength, who teacheth my hands to war and my fingers to fight." That great name of God, Lord of Sabaoth, meant Lord of Armies. Christ Himself by force, with a scourge of small cords, drove the defilers from the temple.

It was not the duty of a Christian, urged the preacher, to remain passive when the Devil red blood-stained over God's earth. Private vengeance was indeed forbidden, but in dealing with Germany the nation was fulfilling a Christian duty in giving them, as Punch said, what they ought to have, vindictive the law of nations.

Civilization had developed because the nations had confidence in one another's pledges. The conscience not only of Christians but of barbarous peoples was shocked by the treatment meted out to Belgium. Triumph of Prussian methods meant the death of Christianity.

Mr. Van Allen told how a Belgian officer, a friend of his, had been killed by the Germans, who had sent against his trench a Red Cross ambulance. This, because it bore the sign of the Red Cross, passed unharmed. When it came close, however, it unmasked itself, and poured a volley from its machine gun.

It was necessary to exterminate such apostles of Satan. As matters developed it was becoming clear that England's action was not merely chivalry but the opening of a crusade for the hope of civilization. Not by accident was it that the democratic states had banded together against the three reactionary states. For Russia was only nominally autocratic. Germany and Austria were despotic. It was more than a chance that the abominable Turk had joined with them. Prussia was organized years ago with a body of armed banditti ready to be led anywhere for plunder. The crushing of the central coalition was essential to the welfare of the great republic and other states not allied, all looking forward to the vision of freedom. Every torpedo or bullet the allies sent was sent for the good of all who believed in freedom.

It was better that the United States should stay out of the war, said Mr. Allen, who added that if she had been doing nothing else she had been able as a neutral to feed Belgium during the past year.

The concluding part of the sermon was a message of encouragement to Canada and the empire. Successes or reverses should not be allowed to sway public feeling too much one way or another. They should rather look to the end. God was in His heaven. Those battalions which had Him on their side were the strongest. He was never on the side of the perjurer or assassin. And much good would come out of the war; more sacrifice, more life, less luxury. In the way of temperance alone it had had radical influence for good. After this war the people of Europe might rise in protest and make further war impossible by creating an arbitration court whose decrees enforced by a righteous force might compel a true peace of God.

SHRINERS HAD GRAND PICNIC AT BRENTWOOD

About 100 Members of Gizeh Temple Gathered at Home of W. O. Wallace

About 100 members of Gizeh Temple, A. A. O. M. S., Queen City Chapter, No. 5, and Victoria Chapter No. 17, O. E. S., participated in the basket picnic held yesterday at the home of W. O. Wallace at Brentwood. Many of the shriners left town on the morning trains, but the majority took the 1:30 o'clock cars.

The day was a grand success. A splendid programme of sports on both water and land were held and handsome prizes were presented to the winners. In the evening a dance was held in the Brentwood hotel with Heaton's orchestra in attendance.

The committee in charge of the outing consisted of W. Thompson, chairman; R. Morrison, secretary, and Messrs. Austin, Scott, Allen and McKenzie. The judges of the sports were: Messrs. Elliott, Forbes and Crocker. The winners in the sports were as follows:

Girls' race, 3 years and under—1, Bessie Taylor; 2, Sheila Hearstun.
Girls' race, 12 years and under—1, Leonora Scott; 2, Violet Petch.
Boys' race, 8 years and under—1, Frank Fairry; 2, Claude Homer.
Boys' race, 12 years and under—1, Charles Homer; 2, Frank Fairry.

The prizes were donated by the following: Potentate Richdale, Recorder Leason, Capt. Scott, W. S. Terry, J. McKenzie, G. D. Christie, M. Cuzner, W. S. Brown, C. Wenger, G. Merryfield, F. A. Gowan, Walter Brown, Fletcher Bros., Hawkins & Hayward, Little & Taylor and the Office Cigar store.

FLYING CLUB MEETING

Constitution Will Be Presented at Tonight's Gathering; Much Interest Being Displayed.

This evening at 8 o'clock the second meeting of the Victoria Aero club will be held in the King Edward hotel, and it is expected that there will be a very large attendance. The meeting will be full of interest, as the working committee which was appointed at the first gathering to draft a constitution and the club will make its report.

The working committee has decided that this city shall have a club. If the Canadian Flying company, which has had its headquarters at Toronto during the summer, cannot be induced to come to Victoria, then an independent school will be started. The support of a number of prominent men in the city is being enlisted and there does not appear any great difficulty in the way of establishing a private school. Following the important part which the flying squads are playing in the great war, and the great interest which is thereby being invoked in the heavier-than-air machine, little trouble is being experienced in getting the people of Victoria to fall in line with a movement which has for its object the training of local boys for the flying corps.

Following the acceptance of the constitution the election of officers will be dealt with. A cordial invitation is extended to every person in this city who is interested in aviation to attend and lend his support.
